A THRILLING HISTORIC DRAMA
CONSPIRACY IN THE REIGN OF HENRY III.
A STORY OF LOVE AND ADVENTURE.

1. HATS OF ALL AGES (Coloured)
2. CONSPIRACY IN THE REIGN OF HENRY III. (Coloured Star Film)

Henry III., King of France, hearing of a conspiracy against himself, sends out an order for the arrest of the Duke of Guise. Margaret, sister of the King, loves the Duke, and sends him warning of his danger. The Duke fights with the King's men who lie in ambush for him, and kills them. An archer, who has escaped the massacre, goes to the King and informs him of the failure of his plans. The King tries to find out who it was who thwarted his will. When he learns it was his own sister he becomes very angry and insults her. An order is issued for the capture of the Duke, who dies bravely fighting in his own defence.

3. FUNERAL OF FREDERICK VIII., KING OF DENMARK
4. CHRYSANTHEMUM

Chrysanthemum, a lovely Japanese girl, becomes an unwilling bride. Some months after her marriage, she falls in love with an handsome American ; but her husband, being suspicious, watches her movements. The American, however, transfers his affections to a girl of his own race. Poor Chrysanthemum becomes exceedingly distressed when she sees the beloved of her heart throwing his favours upon another. Finally, she dies heart broken.

MARKET REPORT:—

There was a sharp decline in the Home markets on closing yesterday owing to longs unloading on favourable weather reports. Telegraphic advices regarding the weather and the crop in America are satisfactory. The local market opened quiet and easier, good Broach being quoted Rs. 301. Here and there export houses were inclined to sell good Broach. At Colaba prices gave way further, and business was done at Rs. 299. The market closes steady as under.

For ready cotton the demand is still moderate. The offtake at Colaba was small the heavy rain interfering to some extent with business.

SAILOR'S SUDDEN DEATH.—A case of suicide is reported from the steamer "Semiramis" now in berthed at No. 8 wharf, Victoria Dock. The victim, Francis Deotak, a sailor, who was in the best of health on Wednesday evening was found dead in his bunk.

FOUND DEAD.—John Antone Mascarenhas, a Goan, aged about 50 years, a cook in the employ of Mrs. A. Lewis, a resident of Carlisle House, Apollo Pier Road, was found dead on the floor leading to the house. His body was discovered by the police without inquest, as medical opinion showed that death was due to natural causes.

CART ACCIDENTS.—A cart-driver named Vithu Kairu, 20, was removed in an unconscious state to the J.J. Hospital for treatment of injuries sustained by the passing of a cart wheel over his head. It appears he was driving his cart along the Sandhurst Road at 6-30 p.m. on Monday last when it began to rain. While he was covering the load on the cart he fell with the result stated.

ALLEGED BREACH OF TRUST.—Karsan Jivandas, employed in the godown of Messrs. Jivandas Dhanji at Masjid Station Road, has been arrested by the police that on the 17th instant he took away 10 bags of grain, valued at Rs. 60, into cart which he had to take to Bhat Bazar but the driver failed to do so and has disappeared with the grain.

BOMBAY GHARRY STANDS.—It is proposed to establish a new gharry stand at the corner of Sandhurst Road, Bombay, near the Parsi Dharamshala, and to remove that at the junction of Bhuleshwar Road and Dadisett Agiary St. to the corner of Sandhurst Road and Fanaswadi alongside the Fire Temple. Objections to either of these measures may be made in writing to the Commissioner of Police or to the Secretary to Government, Judicial Department, before the 1st.

THE STUDENTS' BROTHERHOOD.—Under the auspices of the Students' Brotherhood Prof. G. K. Natrajan M.A. (El. College) will deliver a public address on Saturday the 22nd instant at 6-15 p.m. (S.T.) in the Hall of the Parthana Samaj, Girgaon. Mr. K. Natrajan B.A. The senior class of the Students' Brotherhood will meet on Sunday the 23rd instant at 9 a.m. (S. T.) in the hall of the Parthana Samaj Mandir, Girgaon, when Prof. P. A. Wadia will conduct the class and will expound "Tribe paid off, and future debts outside the Credit Revolution." The junior class of the Brotherhood will meet at 9 a.m. (S. T.) in the hall of that Education Society's schools, Girgaon, on the 23rd instant and will be conducted by Mr. Thaker.

SUICIDE OF A HINDU WOMAN.—A woman committed "suicide by drowning herself in a well," was the finding by the Coroner's jury at the inquest held at Chalk on Wednesday on the body of Lakshmi Shivram, a Hindu woman, aged 20 years. Her husband Krishnaji, the husband of the deceased, identified the body and stated that she was with him at 3-30 a. m. on Wednesday, but two hours later found her missing from the bed. He searched everywhere, but could not find her. Next afternoon heard that a dead body had been found in a well in Warden Road, which, on examination, was found to be his wife's. He also stated that the deceased had been going to work for the past few days and was working in a mill far from the house. She asked her to get work closer to their home but she disappeared. There was no quarrel between them; but she was obstinate regarding her wishes.

THEFT OF A REVOLVER.—Perozsha Cawasji, Customs clerk, in the employ of Messrs. Gray, Groom and Co., has reported to the "I" Division police the theft of a revolver valued at Rs. 15. It appears that the complainant took two revolvers from the unclaimed warehouse, No. 10 shed, Customs enclosure, which is on the ground floor of the same building, for Customs examination on the 18th instant. An officer passed the revolver which he reported stolen, but the other was not passed. The complainant repacked the revolvers in their respective cases and left them both on the floor in front of Mr. Gordon's table. Then he went to the other Customs House and did not return till the next day when he missed one of the cases. A search was made in the shed and the empty case was found among some packages. The missing revolver is the property of Lt. F. J. Peake, of the Duke of Wellington's Regiment at Salon, and was landed from the s.s. "

CURRENT INDIAN NEWS.

According to a cable to the "Times of Ceylon" Mr. W. S. T. Saunders died suddenly in the Badminton Club on June 13th.

The public ferry across the creek at the villages of Dadar and Kalave taluka, Pen in the Kolaba district has been discontinued by order of the Collector.

During the week ended June 18th 515 chests of opium were removed from the Bombay Warehouse for shipment to China. During the same week 155 chests were imported from Indore.

The "Dacca Herald" says that Mr. I. Mollard, the Eastern Bengal State Railway Joint Agent, died of apoplexy on the 15th instant in a 1st class compartment at Dacca station where he had gone on duty.

The Behar Light Horse will celebrate its jubilee in January next. The nucleus of the corps was supplied by a small band of Europeans who armed themselves and kept the mutineers at bay as best as they could during the Sepoy War of 1857. But the corps actually came to be constituted on its present lines in 1863.

A strong demand has sprung up for the barley grown in the United Provinces, the export of which is increasing at a very marked rate. This demand has tended to contenact the fall in price which usually takes place when the new grain is brought into the market. The price remains at a higher level than in the corresponding period of last year.

Slight tremors of earthquake at intervals are felt at Mandslay, a correspondent writes. Mr. Coggin Brown, the Government Geologist, considers that they are to be traced to a "fault" running north and south between the Hsum-h-ai and Nawnghkio stations, on the Lashio line, where the surface indications point to the displacement of rock having taken place at a great depth.

It is stated that a new company is being formed to work a patented process for treating jute to give it the appearance of Tussah silk. The new method is not on the lines of present artificial silk processes, the fibre not being disintegrated as in the latter instance, but only subjected to a special chemical treatment. The samples being exhibited are said to be very promising.

There was a very large attendance at the banquet of Lodge Himalayan Brotherhood in the Town Hall, Simla, when Sir Henry McMahon was installed as Master of the Lodge for the year 1912. Among the guests were Sir Harcourt Butler, Mr Ali Imam, Sir R. Craddock, and the Masters of the other Simla Lodges.

The annual report of the accounts of the Victoria Zenana Hospital, at Delhi, have recently been published. This hospital, which is Delhi's memorial to Queen Victoria, was opened by Her Majesty Queen Mary when she came out to India as Princess of Wales. During this year the operating theatre and the porch have been entirely rebuilt, and some other additions to the building have also been made. The accounts show a favourable balance of Rs. 74,422-17-11.

In 1903 a scheme was initiated for maintaining a supply of bulls of certain popular breeds in the cattle breeding districts of Oudh and for improving the indigenous strains. A farm of 500 acres in the Kheri district was bought and stocked. The young animals of pure indigenous breeds have done well, and the locality selected appears very suitable for the purpose designed. There are now over 200 head of cattle on the farm and operations are so far advanced that it will probably be possible to issue the first batch of stud bulls in October next.

H. M. S. "Highflyer," and H. M. S. "Philomel" are out about 15 miles from Fort Frederick manœuvring, a Trincomalie correspondent wrote on the 12th instant. "The flagship is proceeding to Madras on Saturday and will be a sent from the Station for about a week. H. M. S. "Philomel" will remain at Trincomalie. It is believed that the flagship's departure to Madras is in consequence of the difficulty of communication in wireless telegraphy. Colombo is supposed to be occupying rather a low position, and the difficulty is partially traceable to that fact."

The London correspondent of the "Times of Ceylon" telegraphed on the 14th instant:—"At the meeting of the Ceylon Company of Pearl Fishery, to be held on 21st June, the arrangement with the Ceylon Government will be discussed. The Government agree to the cancelment of the lease and to forego payment of the current year' rent in consideration of the Company handing over its plant, machinery, vessel, and buildings, also the Ceylon 3 per cent. stock given as security for the lease. Resolutions embodying the proposals will be submitted to the meeting."

A correspondent writes to the "Madras Mail":—"A hen in my house of normal size, which has hitherto been laying eggs of the usual size, laid an egg of the size of a pigeon's egg. It is not a smaller one, three or four days ago. Prompted by feelings of curiosity, I opened the egg immediately and found thick white glutinous matter, instead of the yolk which an ordinary egg contains. Superstitious neighbours inform me that it is ill luck to keep the hen any longer and advise me to kill it.

The question of starting Departmental Co-operative Credit Societies in the larger Telegraph Offices in India is now being seriously considered. One of the reasons for the proposal is that it has been ascertained that a considerable number of the larger telegraphists have got into debt and it is hoped that by the aid of these Societies such debts could be paid off, and future debts outside the Credit Societies be avoided. A second reason is that the Department would appear to be an opportune moment to start such Societies, the security funds having been increased so that a certain amount of money has unexpectedly been made available for the staff of these Societies which are entirely personal in no way official.

SUICIDE OF A HINDU WOMAN.—A woman residing in Dixon's Lane, a thickly populated residential quarter of Calcutta—had a thrilling experience the other morning with a cobra. Suspecting that a certain box of hers, which was in daily use, was infested with rats, the woman, as a preventive measure, and with the idea of separating them from the box, placed a few pieces of bread coated over with "Rough on Rats" in it. And on opening the lid the following morning she greatly surprised when a large sized cobra, a most venomous species (black) made its appearance among the articles in the box. The reptile reared its hood erect and with hood extended made determined attacks in her direction. The woman drew herself with her husband's walking stick and approaching the box a second time, killed the JESSE OF CARIBOO, by Roger Pocock (Murray).—An original and fascinating novel, which relates the life of Jesse from his infancy in his father's home on the frozen shore of Labrador, to the tragedy at the end. Jesse is a convincing and most lovable creation, a simple son of the wilds, strong and gentle, with a wonderful compelling charm about him, a certain childlike innocence that he never lost, even when he found himself "up against" stern problems of life and of evil. Inured to dangers and hardships from his birth, his experience of the terrible realities of life began when, as a child of ten, he set out to search for his father, a fur-trapper, who had not returned from making the round of his traps, and found him dead in the snow. His account of this and other incidents of his boyhood, rendered in his quaint, racy, humorous vernacular—the dialect of fo'castle and stock-range—is unequalled for sheer simple pathos. After that early tragedy he became a sailor, and then a cowboy, while manhood found him living and working on his own in a mountain wilderness of the Canadian North-West Territory, alone save for the companionship of the bears, wolves, and cougars, and all sorts of furred feathered things whom he reckoned his friends and comrades, and with whom he was almost as much at home as was Kipling's "Mowgli" in his jungle. The romance of his meeting with Kate Trevor, the idyll of their love and marriage, the dangers and difficulties they faced together, and their tragic parting are of enthralling interest, while there is a curious touch of mysticism in the inexplicable episode of the wood nymph.

WINTERING HAY, by John Trevena (Constable).—Cyril Rossingel, wishing to save a woman who is being ill-treated by a man, strikes the man and kills him. The act is unintentional and guiltless, but Cyril is aghast at what he has done, and, bidding the woman keep silent, he buries the body among the stones and ferns of Dartmoor. This folly brings trouble not only to Cyril but also to be good friends who try to help him, and the reader when he comes to the end of the story sees in it the moral that as a rule the truth is less dangerous than a secret. There is less of Dartmoor and its savegery in this book than in some of Mr. Trevena's novels, and there is at the same time a greater sympathy. Mr. Trevena has never painted more likeable people than the Corrindons—father, mother, son, and daughter—who do so much for the hapless Cyril. But the more we like these four the less we like Cyril, who, after the manner of too many modern heroes, seems to be made up for most part of weakness.

MY IDEALLED JOHN BULLESSES, by Yoshio Markino (Constable).—This is a delightful dissertation on English womanhood in general, and those whom Mr. Markino has met in particular, though he omits their names, as "most of my John Bulless friends would be too much bashful if their full names were spoken, and that is the sweetest part of the woman's nature." In far Japan as a little lad of six years he found his childish ideal by gazing on one of his father's treasures, the portrait of an English girl, the very first European picture that had ever "invaded into" the village, and that was regarded with admiration and reverence by the villagers who used to come with the request, "Please honourably allow us a glance upon that honourable young foreign lady," and the proud possessor would explain, "You see, this young lady is half naked, because she is going to have a bath." "But now I know she was in evening dress," is Mr. Markino's naive comment. So far from being disillusioned when, long years after, he came to England, he found his ideal realised, for in his eyes "every John Bulless looked very beautiful," as she does still, judging by the exquisite studies in colour and vivacious pen and ink sketches with which the book is illustrated. Yet it is not a mere panegyric, for it contains much sweet and sound philosoph

CHURCH DISESTABLISHMENT.

A couple of months ago, Mr. F. E. Smith, in the National Review demonstrated how inequitable is the measure for the disestablishment of the Church in Wales. It had little effect on the present Government and none on the majority in the Commons; nor do we suppose will the later article in Blackwood where Mr. Arthur Page writes in similar strain. He shows that the allegation that the number of the Church's adherents in Wales is less than half the inhabitants of the principality remains unproved, and taking as his theme the utterance of Sir William Harcourt in 1886, argues that "if you raise the question of the Church in Wales, you raise the whole question," reminding his readers of Macaulay's declaration that the effective strength of sects is not to be ascertained merely by counting heads. Mr. Page is able to show that the Church is the largest religious body in Wales, that it is an active Church, that in many parishes it provides the only minister of religion, that its members are increasing, while Nonconformity is on the downward grade and whether the Church of England is disestablished or not, no other religious body in Wales is competent or willing to undertake the obligations of a National Church. In 1905, which is described as the year of the great religious revival in Wales, the "all-inclusive" total of the four dissenting bodies amounted to 1,032,254 and with the addition of a further hundred thousand to include smaller denominations, the total strength of religious bodies other than the Established Church was in that year approximately 1,140,000. Since that date the figures of Nonconformist denominations show that their numbers have decreased, although in 1911 the population had increased to 2,442,000. In these circumstances, asks Mr. Page, how can it be asserted with any regard to accuracy that the Church of England numbers less than half the population of Wales? Even if Nonconformity had increased proportionately, it would still be 80,00 short of half, but they object to a religious census to settle the point. Again, although Mr. McKenna undertook that the operations of the Bill would be strictly confined to Wales, no less than twenty-four parishes in England are affected by the scheme.

Mr. Gladstone once said "as regards the identity of these churches, the whole system of known law, usage and history has made them completely one. There is a complete ecclesiastical, constitutional, legal, and I may add, for every practical purpose, historical identity between the Church of Wales and the rest of the Church of England. I think it is practically impossible to separate the case of Wales from that of England." Bishop Stubbs too gave it as his opinion "that the attack is on the Church as a whole, on the establishment as a whole, on the continuance of the whole historical relations of the whole Church and the State of England." Of that there can be no doubt, for although Mr. McKenna may be reluctant to let the movement exceed the severing of the political tie between Church and State in Wales some of his colleagues will feel less compunction, and once they succeed with Wales they will transfer their energies to England. Yet the laity are warned that it will be they, not the clergy, who will be the greatest losers by disestablishment. The establishment of the Church consists in the legal status which the Church acquired at the Reformation in exchange for the obligations which she then undertook to perform. The effect of establishment was not to confer privileges on the clergy, but to vest legal rights in the laity. In the words of Mr. Page, there was no privilege granted to the Church at the time of the Reformation except the privilege of being entrusted with the spiritual welfare of the nation, for though a State which recognises the paramount importance of propagating Christian principles is under a moral duty to provide the Established Church with the necessary means of effecting its purpose the State in England has undertaken no such obligation. The principal privileges which the Church enjoys became vested in her long before the establishment; her spiritual and her coercive jurisdiction was conceded to her from at least Norman times; the Coronation service of the Church and realm of England, according to the late Dean Hook, has been substantially the same since the eighth century and Bishops have been members of the House of Lords ever since it has existed.

The Royal supremacy over Church and State is known to have remained unchallenged at least three hundred years. As to the State the Sovereign in the last resort has jurisdiction to decide every dispute in ecclesiastical as well as civil matters and the jurisdictions been exercised from the earliest times. It was confirmed by the Constitutions of Clarendon. But whether the supremacy would remain after disestablishment is questionable. The Bishops would cease to be members of the House Lords, but they will be disqualified before then—with the approval of laity—for the reform of the Second Chamber will leave little room for Bishops. The issues raised by disestablishment however, are not the same as those of endowment. The latter is "an invasion right of the laity as well as a robbing and plundering the parson." By disendowment in Wales 220 out of a total of 945 incumbents will be totally deprived of present emoluments and 765 in addition will be left with less than five shillings each to live upon. Fortunately it is the intention of the Government to disestablish and disendow one denomination in order to establish and endow another, but to annex for secular purposes property held in trust for the promotion of Christianity. There is no injustice. The Church in Wales is fulfilling trust with conspicuous success as has been testified, both by Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Asquith. However, the desire of the present Government in this matter can render weak that which is strong influence is not waning, every year by its teaching proves more attractive to people. No good and sufficient reason has been advanced why the Church should be attacked on the excessively flimsy one based on unsoundness. And of one thing we may be sure crippling the resources of the Church will not confer any benefits upon Nonconformity.

The Royal

RACE FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

WILL A DARK HORSE WIN THE CONVENTION ?

Governor Hadley's Chances of Nomination.

SITUATION IN CREDENTIALS' COMMITTEE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

CHICAGO, JUNE 20.

The Republican Convention yesterday defeated the motion by Governor Hadley to replace 92 Taft delegates by Roosevelt delegates on the ground that the former had been improperly placed on the roll by the National Committee.

Mr. Watson, leader of the Taft party, proposed reference of the motion to the Credentials Committee.

The debate was marked by vigorous exchanges of personalities and charges of bribery. It reached a climax when, at the conclusion of the speeches, Governor Hadley and Mr. Watson marched together down the aisle, and the cheering assumed the character of a demonstration in favour of Governor Hadley, who was greeted with a fire of suggestions that he should become the compromise candidate.

The representatives of several States uprooted their standards and marched yelling round the hall which became like bedlam.

The delegates from Illinois tried to start the refrain "We want Teddy", but it was scarcely audible in the storm of cheering for Governor Hadley.

The Missouri delegates performed a bear dance in front of the platform.

A beautiful girl in the gallery turned the tide in favour of Mr. Roosevelt by waving a picture of the ex-President which the crowd descried and cheered. The Californians then took their standard, on which is a golden bear, to the gallery, and waved it over the head of the girl who was brought down to the press seats where she led the cheering for Roosevelt.

After forty-five minutes' pandemonium Governor Hadley consented to the reference of the motion to the Credentials Committee.

The voting on a minor amendment in the course of the debate showed 564 Taftites and 510 Rooseveltians.

CHICAGO, JUNE 18.

The Convention will be occupied with preliminaries until Friday when the Republican candidates will be nominated.

Mr. Roosevelt delivered a speech to-day which has strengthened the belief that he will bolt if defeated. He affirmed that full opportunity would be given to the elected deputies to purge the roll of delegates dishonestly placed there by the National Committee, but if they did not avail themselves of the opportunity, then the action of the Convention would be binding on no honest man.

Mr. Roosevelt's chief lieutenants, however, have notified that they will not sanction a bolt in any circumstances.

LONDON, JUNE 20.

The closeness of the voting in Chicago, as between Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, and the surprise demonstration in favour of Governor Hadley (Missouri), the leading orator of the Reform movement, favours the conjecture that a "dark horse" will be sprung on the Convention.

CHICAGO, JUNE 20.

The Credentials Committee to-day elected Taftite chairman. Thereupon the Roosevelters declared that if the Committee retained the contested delegates they would hold a Convention of their own inside the Coliseum.

Two Republican Candidates for the Presidency will be elected, two Governors for every State, and two Congressmen for every District.

THE HOME RULE BILL.

Opposition Strategy Fails to Work.

LONDON, JUNE 20.

The result of four days' proceedings in the committee stage of the Home Rule Bill is that the first section of the first clause has been passed.

Mr. W. H. Dickinson (Radical) yesterday evening proposed that the Irish Parliament should consist of a single chamber.

The amendment was supported by the Opposition, who hoped that the Labour members would join.

Mr. Ramsay Macdonald, however, speaking on behalf of the latter, said he "would not help the Opposition to kill the Bill."

The Labour members, therefore, voted with the Government and the amendment was rejected by 288 votes to 199.

In view of the slowness of the proceedings, it is expected that the Government will have recourse to the "kangaroo" closure.

KIEL REGATTA.

Notable Success of a British Yacht.

LONDON, JUNE 19.

At Kiel Regatta, the "Bunty," of Great Britain, has won the international one-ton cup outright.

The Kaiser, before leaving for the Regatta, delivered a speech at Hamburg. He emphasised the fact that owing to the creation of the Empire, the German merchant was able to proceed tranquilly on his way under his own flag. He had, however, observed restraint in spreading the German flag, remembering the Hanseatic motto that a little flag is easily hoisted, but it costs much to lower it with honour.

The Kaiser expressed his gratification that many vessels of the related and friendly people of Britain were competing in German regattas.

MR. GEORGE'S SURPLUS.

Part for the Navy and Part to Pay Debt.

LONDON, JUNE 20.

The Times to-day states that there is reason to believe that the Government have decided to allot three or four millions of the realized surplus to the redemption of the National Debt. The bulk of the remainder will be allocated to further provision for the Navy.

ITALY AND TURKEY.

Former Orders All Subjects to Leave Turkey.

EXPECTED DEVELOPMENTS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, JUNE 20.

The Italian Government has now ordered all Italians, including sisters of charity, doctors and orphans, to leave Turkey.

These instructions are interpreted as portending more vigorous action against Turkey.

CHINESE CABINET.

Another Minister "Departs." Secretly.

PEKIN, JUNE 20.

The Minister of Education has now departed secretly and has joined Tangshaoyi in Tientsin.

THE "OCEANA" INQUIRY.

Judgment to be Delivered on Wednesday.

LONDON, JUNE 20.

The "Oceana" enquiry has concluded, and the judgment will be made known on the 26th instant.

THE SUFFRAGETTES.

Mr. Lloyd George Attacked at a Westminster Bazaar.

LONDON, JUNE 19.

Mr. Lloyd George, after opening a Welsh Bazaar at Westminster this afternoon, was attacked and hustled towards the door by suffragettes and attempts were made to knock off his hat.

There were shouts of "When are you going to give facilities for the Women's Bill ?"

Detectives and stewards eventually drove off the assailants.

AUSTRALIAN BIRTH-RATE.

Lord Denman Says it is too Low.

MELBOURNE, JUNE 19.

Lord Denman, opening the Commonwealth Parliament, said that Ministers regarded the rate of increase in the population with the deepest concern. The birth-rate was too low for a young country. They had decided to propose a maternity grant to mothers of children born in the Commonwealth.

The decline in the birth-rate which characterises the Australian colonies is also noticeable in the principal European countries, and has been apparent for a number of years. Before giving in detail the figures for Australia, we may state generally the decline in Europe. If the average crude birth rates in the quinquennium 1901-5 are compared with those recorded twenty years earlier, it will be seen that with few exceptions, the fall has been very marked. While the decline did not exceed 2 per cent in Switzerland, 3 per cent. in Ireland and 4 per cent. in Spain, it reached 14 per cent in France and in Italy, 16 per cent in Servia and in England and Wales, and 17 per cent. in Hungary. In Australia the decline ranged from 12 per cent. in Western Australia, to 36 per cent in South Australia. Since 1905 there has been a further decline in Australia and in all the European countries with the exception of Ireland, Bulgaria and Roumania.

Birth-rates for the various Australian Colonies have been as follows during the periods specified :—

The match between Somerset and the Australians was drawn.

THE COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP.

Middlesex has beaten Nott's, at Lord's, by five wickets.

Kent has beaten Sussex, at Tonbridge, by seven wickets.

Leicester has beaten Hampshire, at Leicester, by 152 runs.

The match between Lancashire and Warwickshire was drawn, Lancashire leading on the first innings.

The captain and the chief officer of the British s. s. "Tydeus" have been awarded medals by the Japanese Government in recognition of their humanity in picking up eight distressed fishermen off Port Hamilton last summer and bringing them to Moji.

RUSSIAN NAVAL POLICY.

Gigantic Programme Adopted by the Duma.

NEW NAVAL BASES.

ST. PETERSBURG, JUNE 20.

The Duma has adopted a five-year Naval programme, fixing the total expenditure at 120 millions sterling, including 78 millions to complete ships in course of construction, and for current expenses.

The Reporter made a warm appeal to the patriotism of the Duma to pass the programme. The cost will be covered without loans.

It is proposed to establish a new base of operations in the Baltic, requiring 70 millions until 1923. It is further proposed to establish a second-class base at Sveaborg.

The leader of the Constitutional Democrats criticised the exorbitancy of the demands which, he said, was the result of Russia's aggressive diplomacy which would act in a still more unconstrained manner after the adoption of the programme.

THE STRIKE.

SOUTHAMPTON, JUNE 19.

The strike is at an end and the men are returning to work unconditionally.

SITUATION IN TIBET.

Precautions being Taken to Meet Eventualities.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

KALIMPONG, JUNE 20.

No confirmation of the rumoured arrival at Lhassa of Chinese reinforcements from the East has been received, but it is highly probable that there is some truth behind the persistent, though no doubt exaggerated, stories of a Chinese move from the East to recover Tibet.

Now, as summer has arrived in these chilly highlands, and some of the snow has melted more is pretty certain to be heard of the force that is endeavouring to make its way into the country along the Chinese highway to Lhassa.

CALCUTTA, JUNE 20.

The special Chinese correspondent of the Statesman at Kalimpong, says: "Nepalese merchants and Ladaki traders, whose residences in Lhasa are within the danger zone have removed to Chaksan village, on the Brahmaputra, in anticipation of the great fighting that will soon take place.

The latest arrivals from Gyantse say the hostile attitude of the Tibetans along the route has changed to friendliness and it is conjectured these changes indicate an advance of Chinese troops. Tibetans at Kalimpong are busy preparing for departure and there is quite a dearth of transport facilities.

POLITICAL CASE REVIVED.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, JUNE 20.

On Tuesday next a special bench presided over by the Chief Justice, and Brett and Chatterjee, Justices, will sit to hear an application on behalf of the Crown in respect of an accused in the Howrah gang case. One Bhuban Mohun Mukerjee was committed to the Special Tribunal along with other accused, in the Howrah gang case on a charge of conspiring to wage war against the King. and also in the case of the 10th Jats on a charge of seducing sepoys from their allegiance. During the trial of these two cases the accused was under medical observation and his trial was postponed. He is now in a fit condition to take his trial.

PLAGUE MORTALITY.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, JUNE 20.

The mortality from plague in India greatly declined during the week ended on the 15th of June, there being only 814 cases and 679 deaths. Provincial returns shows that there were nine deaths in Madras, 62 in Bombay, 27 in Bengal, 108 in Behar and Orissa, 58 in the United Provinces, 336 in the Punjab and 32 in Burma. There were also 23 deaths in Mysore, 16 in Rajputana States and eight in Kashmere.

AFFAIRS IN PERSIA.

The Whereabouts of the Shah's Brother.

DEATH OF DAND KHAN.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, JUNE 20.

The lastest news received at the Persian Consulate at Simla is to the effect that the movements of Salar-Ud-Dowlah, after his recent defeat by the Imperial troops, are unknown. Daud Khan, Chief of the Kalohor tribes, who was Salar-Ud-Dowla's right-hand man, was killed in the fight. His death has deprived his chief of any chance of raising another revolt in those regions.

Prince Farman Farma who has been appointed Governor-General of Kermanshah, has restored order and is now engaged in establishing an effective administrative control.

After the escape of Saulod-Ud-Dowlah from Hasghai, Zaighamud Daulah was appointed Chief of the Kashghai tribe.

MAJOR PETERSON'S ENCOUNTER.

Major Peterson, Chief of the Swedish Gendarmerie, has reported upon the recent encounter he had with a strong detachment of irregular troops, about which incorrect reports have appeared in this country. Major Peterson states that while returning from Shiraz he encountered a number of irregular horsemen at Murchahkhart near Ispahan. These men held up a caravan on the pretext of collecting toll and in default threatened to seize their merchandise. Major Peterson finding that these men were not duly accredited by the Persian Government to collect revenues, captured them.

News of this incident reached Hyder Ali Khan, chief of the horsemen, and some of his relations immediately approached Major Peterson and demanded their release. Major Peterson having refused was attacked by the tribesmen. In the encounter there were several casualties. A relative of Hyder Khan was killed and one of his sons seriously wounded.

Major Peterson, who had no casualties on his side, proceeded to Teheran and reported the matter to the Minister of the Interior.

IN THE GULF.

Bunder Abbas is now comparatively quiet and no further news has been received of Hoossain Haleh Khan who was responsible for the recent disturbance in that region.

The Governor-General of the Persian Gulf is taking steps to restore order in the Gulf.

AN OLD DARJEELING CASE.

Claim for Damages against a Magistrate.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT).

DARJEELING, JUNE 20.

The hearing of the suit instituted by Mr. C. Forstmann against Mr. H. T. S. Forest, I.C.S., late Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling, for damages for wrongful arrest amounting to Rs. 15,000 was taken up yesterday by the Sessions Judge.

The case for the plaintiff set out that in 1904 Forstmann had installed an electric system of his own for the exclusive use of the houses of the Beechwood Estate. In 1906 he ceased generating his own supplies and got the Municipality to connect his system to the municipal main. The houses, including the Rink, however, were connected to the municipal main direct and had their own meters. In these cases payment of the current was to be made with the Municipality by the tenant. On the 31st of March, 1910, lessee wrote to the Vice-Chairman intimating a vacancy from that date and on the 4th of June Mr. Forstmann, on behalf of the fresh lessee, hired the Rink for two theatrical parties charging rent only leaving them to arrange for the lighting. The municipality discovering that current had been used, billed Mr. Forstmann who repudiated the claim. The municipality then so altered the connection of the general meter that the further use of the current of the Rink would be registered by the general meter, and removed the meter from the Rink.

Correspondence followed, which Mr. Forstmann understood and permited him to replacing the writing and he did so. The lessees, who hired the Rink, however engaged a municipal mistry to connect the wires in the Rink although there was no meter to record the consumption. The municipality learning of this consumption charged Forstmann with theft.

Mr. Walker, proprietor of a music depot, and Mr. Forstmann were examined and supported the plaint.

Their cross-examination was not concluded when the court rose.

THE OOTY HOUNDS.

Lawn Meet at the Gaekwar's Residence.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

OOTACAMUND, JUNE 20.

By invitation of H. H. the Gaekwar of Baroda a lawn meet of the Ootacamund hounds was held at his residence at Woodstock at 7-30 this morning.

H. E. Sir Murray Hammick was received on the eastern lawn by His Highness, and conducted to a sumptuously arranged pavilion tent, where refreshments were served. The hounds then followed the Master, Captain Meyrick. The morning was a fresh one with a mild drizzle. The party having been photographed the hounds started through the beautiful woodstock grounds away into the downs.

In addition to Sir Murray Hammick and the Gaekwar of Baroda, there were present General Sir Edmund Barrow, General Sir J. Woon, General Beatson, Col. Butler, Mr. Colin Mackenzie, Major Lambton, the Zemindar of Sivagiri, Capt. Grigg, the Baroda Princes, practically all the members of the Hunt Club and very many ladies.

THE SOLDIER-JUDGE.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

LAHORE, JUNE 20.

Commenting on the appointment of Colonel Guy Beadon, Divisional and Sessions Judge, Amballa, as a temporary Additional Judge of the Chief Court of the Punjab, the Civil and Military Gazette says : This is the first occasion on which a "Military Civilian" has been promoted to officiate as a Judge of the Chief Court. Colonel Davis, Commissioner, of Delhi, in 1876, afterwards Sir William Davies, was recommended in his day as the best qualified candidate for the bench, but his appointment was vetoed by the then Secretary of State. The present appointment will form a precedent that future Secretaries of State will find very difficult to resist.

MYMENSINGH APPEAL.

Summary of the Privy Council Judgment.

"MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE"

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

ALLAHABAD, JUNE 20.

The Pioneer's London correspondent wires : The judgment of the Privy Council in the Mymensingh case was delivered by Lord Macnaghten. It commences by saying that although the pecuniary amount involved is trifling the case is one of grave importance, and their Lordships are compelled to add there has been a serious miscarriage of justice in both the courts (that of Mr. Justice Fletcher in the first instance and that of the Full Bench in the Calcutta High Court cousisting of the late Chief Justice and Harrington and Brett, JJustices) which dealt with the matter.

After reciting the admitted facts relative to the disturbance and search, the judgment says the only question is whether Mr. Clarke was authorized to make a search. An undeniably serious offence against public tranquility had been committed and it was the duty of the District Magistrate to enquire into that offence. An inquiry under the Code of Criminal Procedure is a proceeding distinct from a trial. The holding of such an enquiry is expressly placed within the competence of the magistrates having third class powers and upwards by section 36. Among the ordinary powers of such magistrates it is stated in schedule 3, is the issuing of search warrants. The judgment then quotes section 96 and adds that section 105 provides that any magistrate may direct a search to be made, That he may be present at any place for a search of which he is competent to issue a warrant, seems clear from these sections. Mr, Clarke was authorised by the Code to direct a search of the plaintiff's cutchery and he could be present if he considered it advisable.

The judgment terms Mr. Justice Fletcher's disposal of Mr. Clarke's defence as rather summary.

Referring to Sir Francis Maclean's interpretation that the defendant was not acting as a "court" and was therefore not competent. The judgment observes if his Lordship had read to the end of the form in schedule 5 he would have seen that it disposed of his theory altogether. That form contemplated the issue of a search warrant before any proceedings of any kind were initiated.

Both Mr. Justice Fletcher and the Appellate Judges had gone wrong over the word "court" which was commonly used in the Code as a convertible term for "magistrate." It seems clear to their Lordships that what Mr. Clarke did was warranted by the Code,

CALCUTTA, JUNE 20.

Commenting on the Privy Council judgment in Mr. Clarke's case the Englishman says:—The result of this case will be to create a feeling of great relief amongst all executive officers. The High Court rulings were received with great joy by people who make it their business to render the Government of the country as difficult as possible. They will be correspondingly depressed by the decision of the Privy Council."

The Statesman says that the reversal of a judgment of the High Court which was confirmed by the Court of Appeal pointt to the desirability of strengthening the judicial bench.

The Amrita Bazar Patrika says that there is no doubt that the decision will cause great surprise in the country.

THE MIDNAPUR CASE.

Mr. K. B. Dutt Threatens to Throw up his Brief.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, JUNE 20.

During the hearing of the Midnapore damage suit appeal before a special bench of the High Court to-day, it was stated by counsel engaged on both sides that the hearing would be concluded in ten days.

Mr. K. B. Dutt, counsel for the plaintiff, was very much excited and threatened to retire from the case. Mr. Dutt, in the course of his argument, said that the police sent for Ashu, and Ashu came to the police station and told Surendra to confess.

Woodroffe, J. ; You say Ashu tutored Surendra ?

Mr. Dutt : Ashu advised Surendra to make a statement.

Woodroffe, J ; If you don't want to say "tutored" say so, and I will take it, but I have had various statements from you.

Mr. Dutt : I have argued this case under various difficulties, if your Lordships don't want to hear me I will leave the case and let my junior argue it.

Woodroffe, J.: What do you wish me to put down ? I have taken it down "Ashu tutored Surendra."

Mr. Dutt: I have been putting my case for the last fifteen days and if your Lordship thinks that I am obstructing you I will retire from the case and leave it to my junior.

Woodroffe, J: There is nothing I have said which justifies your observation. I have put it down "Ashu tutored Surendra." Have I correctly taken that down?

Mr. Dutt then continued his address.

THE LANDAURA RAJ.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

ALLAHABAD, JUNE 20.

The Allahabad High Court has appointed the Collector of Saharanpur, to be the Receiver for the Landaura Raj, valued at over one crore of rupees, pending the decision of the suit for the possession of the entire Raj, instituted by Raja Balwant Singh against Rani Dharma Keor. It will be remembered that the Privy Council had recently declared the adoption of the plaintiff as valid. In the course of the arguments it appeared that the Rani had spent nearly fourteen lakhs in litigation and that so great was her animus against the Raja that rather than allow him to take possession of the Raj she had offered to make a gift of it to Queen Alexandra.

KARACHI FREIGHTS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

KARACHI, JUNE 20.

The better feeling in freights advised last week has been maintained, and rates have firmed up one shilling to one and six pence during the week. Berth bookings are small as there is but little liner tonnage offering for ready and near positions, but fourteen charters are reported, practically all for July loading, as June steamers are scarce. Home wheat markets have shown more life and should the demand continue freight rates are likely to be more than upheld.

BOMBAY CORPORATION.

Mr. D.E. Wacha and Imported "Boy Experts."

A CURIOUS DISCUSSION.

A meeting of the Bombay Corporation was held yesterday afternoon, the Hon. Mr. Manmohandas Ramji, the President, occupying the chair.

Dr. Sukhia moved the following proposition, of which he had given previous notice :—That the representatives of the Corporation on the Improvement Trust he requested to state the course of action followed by them in regard to the proposals of the Chairman to increase the salary of Mr. Delves, Deputy Land Manager.

In moving the proposition Dr. Sukhia said that this proposition should have been placed at the top of the agenda so that it would have been considered and disposed of on a previous occasion, when the excerpts of the proceedings of the Improvement Trust meetings were considered. The Secretary having given the proposition a place in the middle of the list, Dr. Sukhia would not be responsible for any waste of time which was occasioned that afternoon in discussing the proposition. Dr. Sukhia then proceeded to state the date on which he had given the notice of motion and was going to describe how the Secretary erred in not putting both items together.

Sir Ibrahim Rahimtulla rose to a point of order. He asked the President if the Board was considering Dr. Sukhia's proposition, or the place it should have occupied on the business list.

The President suggested that if Dr. Sukhia had any complaint to make he should bring a separate notice of motion, or write to the Secretary and call upon him for an explanation.

Dr. Sukhia then moved his proposition, and said that his object in bringing the motion was to give the members an opportunity to substantiate their action in the matter. On a previous occasion the representatives had been asked to explain a case and their explanation was found satisfactory.

Mr. Shapurji S. Mistry seconded the proposition.

"RUDIMENTS OF VOTING."

The Hon. Sir Pherozeshah Mehta said that he always supported a proposition, which gave the representatives of the Corporation on the Improvement Board an opportunity of publicly relating what they were doing on the Board. He was always against a proposal which interfered with the internal economical principles of a body, which was entrusted with certain work. But the relations between the Corporation and the Improvement Trust were so close and intimate that they must hear what their representatives had to say on an important question. From the papers before them the Corporation could see that all four representatives of theirs had voted against the proposition, and ultimately three of them voted in favour of it. The members who represented them on the Improvement Trust Board were men, better than whom they could not have elected. But they had found that the time had come when they should ask Government for an amendment of the Act by which the Corporation could be much more largely represented on the Improvement Trust Board. The time had come when the voice of the Corporation's representatives on the Board should be made effective. At present the members were helpless before—

Mr. Mistry : A Government majority.

Sir Pherozeshah Mehta said that though he did not differ from the remark of Mr. Mistry yet that should be pointed out at the proper time. On principle, Sir Pherozeshah urged, the proposition must be carried.

Mr. J. A. Wadia said that so far as gratitude and loyalty were concerned Mr. Delves had acted very loyally and gratefully as he had put his case immediately before his employers. As to the operations and work of the Improvement trust, Mr. Wadia said that the Trust had been materially contributing towards improved sanitation of the city.

Sir Pherozeshah Mehta : What is the mortality to-day ?

Mr. Wadia : It is due to the faulty building by-laws passed by the Municipality.

The Hon. Sir Ibrahim Rahimtulla gave an account of what took place at the Improvement Board meeting. He finally pointed out that the four members were in favour of his amendment which was to record the finance committee's report which meant that the Chairman should bring forth the whole scheme of reorganization. But the amendment was defeated. Mr. Sprott, one of the trustees seeing that the scale of salaries proposed in the report was very large, proposed an amendment which suggested a smaller scale. The position was this, either to accept the original high scale or vote for Mr. Sprott's amendment. Sir Ibrahim was surprised that Dr. Sukhia, an experienced member of the Corporation should fail to understand even the rudiments of voting. The Corporation's representatives took the right view in selecting the lesser of the evils and voted for the amendment. Mr. Wacha voted against it.

Mr. D.E. Wacha said that Sir Ibrahim Rafimtulla had given a lucid explanation why the Corporation representatives had voted in favour of the amendment. His minute was written by the speaker long before that time. He did not agree with the report of the Finance Commitee of the Trust and therefore the minute was written and thus it remained on the record of the proceedings. His reasons were that he disapproved of the currents and under-currents which were allowed to run into the administration of the Trust. He was against the policy of importing boy-experts. He quite agreed with the suggestion of Sir Pherozeshah Mehta, that the Corporation should be better represented on the Improvement Trust Board. He (Mr. Wacha) was from the very beginning opposed to the constitution of the Trust. The Corporation must see that they were better represented and respected.

Mr. E. L. Sale and Colonel Collie both raised a point of order. They submitted that the Corporation were not discussing the Improvement Trust constitution.

The President ruled that while speaking on the proposition Mr. Wacha, as a member of the Corporation had a right to say why and under what circumstances he had written his minute.

Sir Bhalchandra Krishna did not approve of the ultra-radical policy of Mr. Wacha which meant all or nothing. If they had not supported Mr. Sprott's amendment they would have had to accept the high scale of wages originallay proposed in the scheme.

Mr. Naoroji Jehangir Gamadia, one of the representatives, offered a brief explanation saying that he found it was businesslike and practical to vote for the amendment and so he had done it.

The Hon. Sir Sassoon J. David suggested that after what had been stated at the meeting Dr. Sukhia should withdraw his proposition.

Dr. Sukhia asked for and was given permission to withdraw his motion.

THE EXPERT ENGINEER

Mr. C. V. Mehta, Chairman of the Standing Committee, asked for urgency for the consideration of the Commissioner's letter in which he requested sanction to Mr. Medgley Taylor being paid one hundred guineas for examining and advising the Municipality as to the site suggested by Sir John Wolfe Barry and Mr. Mackison for the Love Grove sewage outfall.

The Corporation accorded the sanction asked for.

Dr. Dinshaw Master proposed that the Government letter permitting the erection of plague camps on the Kennedy Sea Face, subject to certain conditions be referred to a Committee.

Sir Phirozeshah Mehta moved as an amendment that the letter be recorded and a copy thereof be forwarded to the Commissioner for information.

The amendment was carried, and the meeting was adjourned until Monday next.

BANK OF BENGAL.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, JUNE 20.

The Bank of Bengal rate was to-day reduced from 5 to 4 per cent.

The "Great Raymond," who, it will be remembered, appeared at the Opera House in Bombay was a defendant in a suit brought against him by Henry A. Law, in Hongkong, claiming £100 offered by Raymond to anyone who succeeded in liberating himself from Raymond's handcuffs. The plaintiff claimed he had won the prize fairly, while Raymond said the handcuffs had not been properly locked. Raymond was held by the judge liable to pay £100 to the plaintiff, who is an army officer.

THE WEATHER.

Yesterday's Rainfall Interferes with Work.

SCENES IN THE CITY.

Yesterday gave us a further development of mon soon conditions, with a generous rainfall and little wind. There was also a grateful fall in the temperature and the amenities of life were certainly more cheerful, notwithstanding climatic depression. If it had been necessary to furnish statistics for a statement of hours of sunshine, our contribution yesterday would have been nil.

In the Fort the streets were not flooded, but in some instances there were slushy and muddy roads which made moving about on foot unpleasant. The great open spaces near the Bombay Gymkhana pavilion were flooded in the forenoon and though they cleared somewhat towards midday the heavy downpour of the late afternoon brought back the water.

In the native town, to the north of the Fort all the main thoroughfares were fairly clear of water except in Khetwadi and a portion of Girgaum Back Road. In these localities scores of narrow lanes and gullies cut into the main thoroughfares, and in these considerable water was collected. From Null Bazaar to Nagpada, too, similar conditions prevailed—flooded lanes, slushy and muddy streets. The population hereabouts is made up principally of the poor, and such, needless to state, suffered considerable inconvenience.

In another direction there has also been suffering. The rains have brought sickness not perhaps of a serious or severe character, but sufficient to interfere with labour, the result being that in many industrial establishments in and about the city there has been grave scarcity of workmen.

Few house accidents have occurred in the town, only one of any extent having been reported. On all buildings, under construction, however, masonry work has been suspended.

Afloat, conditions have quietened. The swell in the harbour has diminished considerably and there has been little wind. Earlier in the week one or two minor accidents occurred, but no loss of life has been brought to our notice.

LATE TRAINS.

A number of mail and passenger trains arrived late yesterday morning. The Delhi Express was late by three hours and twenty minutes ; the Nagpur mail by two hours and forty-five minutes; the North East passenger by two hours ; the Punjab mail by half an hour, and the Calcutta mail by one hour, and fifteen minutes.

The reason, it is stated, is due to the dropping of a boulder on Tully Ghat.

HARBOUR CASUALTIES.

Tony No. 7366 was lost on Wednesday. The little craft was proceeding from Modi Buader to a steamer in the harbour when it capsized owing to the heavy sea running and a strong wind. Another tony which witnessed the accident hurried to the rescue and succeeded in saving the tindal and three khalasis.

Another tony (No. 10650) was proceeding from the Customs Bunder to a steamer in the harbour. When near the new dock wall she capsized in the heavy swell. The R. I. M. S. launch "Elephanta," which happened to be steaming close by noticed the accident and went to the rescue saving the tindal and three khalasis and also securing the tony.

On Wednesday evening Antone Kaitano (18), a cook on board the steamer "Lawoe" was removed to the G. T. Hospital for treatment. It is stated that Kaitan was walking along the deck when he fell owing to the heavy rolling of the ship.

DAMAGE TO A BUILDING.

On Wednesday night, at nine, the roof of a building belonging to Jewary Hai, at Canel Lane, fell in owing to heavy rain. The top floor was used as a boarding house and there were also tenants in other floors. The inmates were able to escape without injury and no damage has been done except to the fabric of the building.

The Executive Engineer has ordered the building to be pulled down.

IN MADRAS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MADRAS, JUNE 20.

The first shower of rain after a lapse of over five months fell last night at Madras, 1 inch 4 cents being registered.

IN CALCUTTA.

Writing on Tuesday the "Statesman" said :—

The storm on Sunday night, furious though it was while it lasted, was not the real thing. When dust-storms followed by heavy rain, occur at this time of the year they usually cool the atmosphere for the whole night but by 10 o'clock on Sunday night it was as close and sultry as before the rain came, and yesterday was another of those trying days which have afflicted Calcutta now for more than a week and which will continue to make life a burden until the rains come in earnest. But the promise of a month ago when storm followed storm with regularity for several days, and the reports that the monsoon has burst in Colombo and Bombay, notwithstanding, the monsoon seems to be as far from Calcutta as ever. And in the meantime everybody is suffering in one way of another from the steamy heat which makes Calcutta like the hot room of a Turkish bath.

The temperature has been very high for several days, but not so high as a few weeks ago when the thermometer climbed gradually up to 102 in the shade. The heat has, however, been very much worse to bear than it was then owing to the excessive humidity in the atmosphere. The maximum temperature in the 24 hours ended yesterday was 99·1, or 8·2 above normal, and it was not until evening that there was the slightest suggestion of a breeze to bring relief to weary wayfarers. It was some thing very near akin to torture to be out in the streets during the day, and indoors the electric fan simply churned up hot air.

That the heat is quite unusual will be apparent when it is said that at one workshop in the city the mistries could not go on with their work, and were given the day off by their employer, who saw how they were suffering. All out-door work has been seriously interfered with for several days past, and on a number of building there has been a cessation of work for a few hours in the middle of the day,

The excessive heat has not strange to say, had any serious effect on the death-rate of the city. Minor complaints—which if not seriously attended to might develop into serious illness—such as diarrhœa have been fairly common, while the great majority of the people are suffering from prickly heat and other inconveniences incidental to the hot weather. But so far as the principal diseases are concerned the health of the city is good. Dr. Pearse, the Health Officer, told a "Statesman" representative yesterday that plague, cholera and fevers had decreased, there was hardly any small-pox, and mortality was generally very low. Considering the very trying weather, the health of the city is remarkably good.

There have been numerous cases of people, ladies particularly, being overcome by the heat and fainting, and the weather has been responsible for at least one death. The chief steward of the Austrian-Lloyd steamer "Marquis Bacqueham" was taken suddenly ill with heat apoplexy on Saturday afternoon and died in a few moments. A lady shopping in the New Market on Sunday fainted and it was some time before she came round—and numerous similar incidents occurred.

ANOTHER DISABLED STEAMER.

The "Times of Ceylon," on Sunday, published the following telegram from Batticoloa of the same date.

A strong rumour was afloat yesterday morning that a steamer had grounded at the bar when a vessel was seen signalling for coal. Mr. Cavinader

Health Officer, boarded her at once, followed later by the local Agent of the Ceylon Steamship Company. It transpired that she was the s.s. "Aidandiary" bound from the Straits Settlements.

The "Aidandiary," 3,329 gross tonnage, Captain F. J. Ogilvie, is owned by Messrs Clark and Service, 21 Bothnill Street, Glasgow. Her engines got out of order, and she took 17 days to reach Batticaloa. Provisions which were short were supplied. Captain Ogilvie was advised to steam to Trincomalee, where there is Government coal. The steamer left yesterday evening.

ALL-INDIA REPORT.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, JUNE 19.

The monsoon has given general and locally heavy rain on the western coast as far north as Gujarat, with local rain in the south of Peninsula. A few thunder showers have occurred along the Central and Western Himalayas. The rainfall has been fairly general in Orissa and Bengal, and nearly general in Assam and Lower Burma.

Victoria Point and Mergui each report one inch; Tavoy and Moulmein, each two; Diamond Island, Myitkyina and Tespur, each one and a half; Cheerapunji, three; Cox's Bazaar, four; Sangor Island, three; Ranchi, one and a half; Calcutta, one; Mukteswar, two; Maraval, eight; Rajkot, three-quarters; Bombay, three; Goa, four; Mormugoa and Mercara, each two; Belgaum and Calicut, each eight; Cochin, five; Trivandrum, Cuddalore and Madras, each one and a half.

The tendency towards the formation of a storm off the Orissa Coast is no longer preceptible. The temperature is still high over the Central Provinces, Central India, Rajputana, the Punjab plains and south of the United Provinces.

Forecast: A few showers in Rajputana; otherwise no large change.

The Arabian Sea:—The log of the steamship "Bassano," which arrived at Bombay on the 18th, shows that the monsoon conditions are now more marked than usual in the west Arabian Sea.

BOMBAY DAILY WEATHER REPORT.

Summary of observations recorded at 8 hours on Thursday, the 20th June, 1912, giving data for the preceding 24 hours.

The Punjab.—Rawalpindi records 0·18" of rain. Skies are clear in the south-west Punjab and lightly to moderately clouded elsewhere. The moisture in the air is either equal to or below the average. Day temperature is in excess; night temperature is also in excess except in the extreme north where it is in defect.

The United Provinces.—Skies are moderately clouded at Allahabad and clear elsewhere. Humidity is in defect. Temperature is in excess.

Sind and Rajputana.—Skies are clear in upper Sind and lightly to moderately clouded elsewhere. Humidity is in excess in Upper Sind and in defect in the central parts of Rajputana. Maximum temperature is in excess except at Karachi; the minimum is also above normal at Bikaner, Ajmer and Jaipur and in defect at Jacobabad and Kotah.

Gujarat, Kathiawar and Central India West.—Fairly general rain has fallen in south Kathiawar and local rain in Gujarat; Veraval reports 7·80", Rajkot 0·75 and Surat 0·17" of rain. Skies are moderately to heavily clouded. Humidity is normal or in excess. Night temperature is in defect at Veraval; day temperature is in excess in West Central India.

The Central Provinces.—Skies or lightly to moderately clouded. The moisture in the air is below the average. Day temparature is in excess; night temperature is also above normal at most stations.

The Konkan.—General rain has fallen; Bombay has had 3·37", Ratnagiri 0·91", Mormugao 2·19" and Karwar 0·22". Skies are moderately to heavily clouded. The air contains the usual amount of moisture. Temperature is nearly normal.

The Bombay Deccan and Hyderabad.—Local rain has fallen in the Bombay Deccan. Belgaum has had 0·97" and Poona 0·12". Skies are lightly to moderately clouded. The moisture in the air is either equal to or below the average. Maximum temperature is in excess in Hyderabad.

General remarks.—Strong monsoon conditions continue on the west coast of the Peninsula where rainfall has increased, Cochin and Calicut reporting 5·68" and 8·20" respectively. Fairly general rain has fallen on south Kathiawar and local rain in south Gujarat; Veraval records a very heavy rainfall of 7·80". In the Bombay Deccan rainfall remains local. Another noteworthy feature in the weather today is widespread and moderate to fairly heavy rain on the south Coromondel Coast. Seas are going down in Malabar but have become moderate at Veraval. An area of low pressure is still noticeable in Kathiawar and Gujarat.

Nearly general rain is likely on the west coast of the Peninsula and Kathiawar and local rain in Gujarat and the Bombay Deccan. A few showers are possible in the east Central Provinces and a few dust or thunder-storms in the Punjab and Rajputana.

STANDARD BAROMETER READING.

The reading of the barometer at the Colaba Observatory corrected for index error and reduced to 32. F. and for Calcutta standard at 8 a. m. (local time) 20th June, was ·29·590 inches. The height of observatory barometer cistern above zero of the tide gauge at Apollo Bunder is 69 feet. The height of tide in the stream above zero of the tide gauge was 6 feet at 8 a. m. (local time). The temperature correction for a mercurial barometer, supposing the reading to be ·30·00 inches and that of the attached thermometer 80 deg. F. will be 14in. and this will be higher or lower by 01 inch for each 4 degrees. In the case of the aneroid no temperature correction is required. Should the height of barometer cistern either mercurial or aneroid above zero of the gauge be different from 47 feet, it will read higher or lower by 6 inch for each 11 feet. The readings above are distinct from those given in the daily weather report to which different corrections have been applied.

OUDH AND ROHILKHUND LINE.

No decision has yet been reached on the question of the Oudh and Rohilkhund Railway being taken over by the East India Railway.

The Bombay Chamber represented to the Railway Board that the line should continue to be managed by the State, putting forward as a reason that the transfer of the line to a Company or private management would greatly prejudice Bombay interests.

Commenting on this the "Indian Railway Gazette" says that the fallacy of the suggestion and the self-seeking motive that has prompted it, have already been discussed and disclosed and we have every reason to state that should any change in administration be necessary the control will and should pass on to the East Indian."

A new French passenger service from Bordeaux to Brazil and the River Plata, called the Compagnie de Navigation Sud-Atlantique, is to start running in October and will be an important addition to the few big steamship lines under the French flag. The formation of the company and commencement of two 12,000 ton steamers, taken with other large ship building orders, are indications that France intends to take in the near future a place among the mercantile Powers more commensurate with her international position, her wealth, and the extent of her seaboard. Among well-known vessels purchased from other lines to start the service, is the "Ormuz," the oldest of the Orient Line vessels, which was built in 1886 by the Fairfield Company, of Glasgow, and has spent the winter laid up off Southend Pier awaiting a buyer; and the Bibby Liner "Staffordshire," built in 1894 by Messrs. Harland and Wolff at Belfast. The German "Kaiser Friedrich," built in 1897 by the firm of Schichau at Elbing, near Danzing, of 12,000 tons is by far the largest of the new purchases. The two new steamers, building, will be ready for service in about 18 months.

THE CHOLERA EPIDEMIC.

Shows Steady Indications of Subsiding.

YESTERDAY'S FIGURES.

The cholera outbreak shows some signs of subsiding. In the twenty-four hours ended at 6 a.m. yesterday sixty cases were reported and forty-two deaths. Districts II, III, and IV are still the heaviest affected, the figures being, respectively, 18 cases 11 deaths; 14 cases, 9 deaths; 10 cases, 5 deaths.

Up to 10 o'clock last night six new cases, one of which proved fatal, had been admitted to the Arthur Road Hospital since 6 a. m.

During the week ended on June 15th there were according to the official mortality returns 428 deaths from cholera in Bombay. These included nine cases among recent arrivals from Poona, Ratnagiri Districts, Kathiawar, Goa and Hyderabad (Deccan). The total mortality was thus 1,252 equal to a death-rate of 66·47 compared with 467 deaths and a rate of 24·79 in the corresponding week of last year.

THE WEEK'S RETURNS.

The total number of deaths registered in Bombay during the week ending June 15 was 1,252, giving a death-rate of 66·47 per annum per thousand as against 24·79 the corresponding period of last year, and 29·45 the average over the past five years. Of the total number 75 died from fevers; 27, plague; 24, small-pox; 5, measles; 428 cholera; 51 phthisis; 52, diseases of the nervous system; 224 affections of the respiratory organs, 62; diarrhœa; 30, dysentery; 21, still-born; 105, old age and debility; 15, accidents and violence. The classified list of deaths shows:—Jain, 36; Brahman, 40; Lingaet, 3; Bhattia, 6; Hindu of other caste, 505; Hindu low caste, 117; Musalman, 433; Parse, 44; Jew, 16; Native Christian, 40; Eurasian, 4; European, 7; Negro-African, 3; Budhist, 1. The total number of births was 361 as against 363 for the corresponding period of last year, and 349, the average over the past five years.

JAILS AND CRIMINALS.

Magisterial Discretion and Juvenile Criminals.

The following Resolution by Government issued through the Judicial Department is published:—

During the year under report the total population in all classes of jails and prisons rose considerably with the result that a number of prisons were constantly overcrowded. It is hoped that the provision of increased accommodation at Sabarmati and the construction of a new jail at Andheri will help to relieve the congestion. The death-rate shows an increase of 4·4 per mille over last year. This was partly due to a pneumonia epidemic in Sukkur. The Governor-in-Council wishes to record his appreciation of the way in which Colonel Crimmin, V.C., C.I.E., and Messrs. Reed and Brierley dealt with the difficult conditions of the Common Prison and the House of Correction.

The average gross cost per head of population shows an increase of approximately Re. 1 over the cost in 1910, while the average net cost, owing to decrease in the profits of jail manufactures, shows an increase of Rs. 5-13.

The statistics of punishments show a gratifying decrease in the ratio of all punishments to population and in the absolute number of punishment classed as major.

The number of juvenile offenders admitted to jail shows a decrease, but from the table submitted by the Inspector-General of Prisons in his 7th paragraph it is clear that some of the Magistracy still fail to exercise a proper discretion in this matter. Six children of and under the age of 14 were sent to prison because they were unable to furnish security for their good behaviour, one boy of 12 was sentenced to six months' simple imprisonment for receiving stolen property and one infant of 8 was sent to prison for theft. Such cases reflect credit neither on the police nor on the Magistracy, and as they have occurred despite repeated warnings, the Governor-in-Council is pleased to direct that in future all District Magistrates will, as a matter of course, call for the record in all cases in which offenders under the age of 14 have been sentenced to imprisonment either substantively or in default of fine, and will submit such cases for the orders of Government. Cases in Bombay will be submitted by the Chief Presidency Magistrate. An extract of this paragraph should be communicated by District Magistrates and the Chief Presidency Magistrate to all Magistrates under them for information and guidance.

The Governor-in-Council earnestly desires to draw the attention of the public to the remarks of the Inspector-General of Prisons in his 17th and 63rd paragraphs. All attempts at reclaiming juvenile and first offenders depend for their success much more on special treatment while in prison than on the existence, outside, of properly organised bodies of public-spirited individuals, who will undertake to guide and assist the offender of his release.

The Governor-in-Council thanks the Inspector-General of Prisons and the other members of his department for the way in which they have performed their duties.

BOMBAY SEASON REPORT.

The following General Summary of weather and crop reports in the Bombay Presidency for the past week has been published. There was good rain during the week in parts of Ratnagiri, Kanara, Savantvadi and Kolhapur, moderate in parts of Thana, Kolaba, Ahmednagar and Poona and slight in parts of Karachi, Larkana, Hyderabad, Thar and Parkar, Upper Sind Frontier, Surat, Sholapur, Khandesh, Satara, Karnatak, Kathiawar, Cutch, Palanpur and Mahi Kantha. Preparation of lands for cultivation of kharif crops is generally in progress. Sowing operations are in progress in the Konkan and in tracts near the Ghats. Agricultural stock is deteriorating in parts of Sind, Gujarat, West Khandesh, Ahmednagar, Poona, Bijapur, Kathiawar and Palanpur; it is deficient in parts of Ahmednagar, Poona, Satara, Sholapur and Cutch. Drinking water and water for irrigation are insufficient in many places in the Presidency proper. The fodder-supply is generally inadequate. Prices of food-grains have risen in Ahmedabad, Kaira, Broach, Surat, East Khandesh, fallen in Thana, Kanara and Sholapur; elsewhere they are stationary. The quantities of food-grains purchasable per rupee are 30 to 59 per cent less than normal in Sind, 35 to 58 per cent. less than normal in Gujarat, 22 to 35 per cent. less than normal in the Konkan, 33 to 58 per cent. less than normal in the Deccan and 40 to 48 per cent. less than normal in the Karnatak.

Distress continues throughout the Panch Mahals district and parts of Kathiawar. Relief measures are adequate and no wandering is noticed. The public health is generally good, and people on relief works are in good condition. People find employment in digging temporary wells. Distribution of takavi continues. The stocks of grain are sufficient. Price of Bajri is 8 to 9 and of maize 8 1-2 to 9 seers per rupee. The numbers on relief works for the week ending 15th June were 47,096 in the Panch Mahals and 8,432 in Kathiawar. The numbers on works are rising owing to want of rain. The numbers on gratuitous relief in Ahmedabad, the Panch Mahals, Kaira, West, Khandesh, Nasik, Ahmednagar, Poona, Sholapur, Bijapur, Belgaum and Dharwar were 61,212. In the Native States of Kathiawar, Palanpur, Mahi Kantha, Rewa Kantha and Jath the numbers on test works were 8,789 and on gratuitous relief 5,553.

LAW INTELLIGENCE

BOMBAY HIGH COURT.

Corrupt Policeman Sent to Prison.

At the Bombay High Court, yesterday, the Appellate Bench consisting of the Acting Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Batchelor disposed of an appeal from a decision of Mr. C. N. Mehta, Additional Sessions Judge of Ahmedabad, who convicted Farjula Mustafa, a police constable, of receiving illegal gratification and other offences relating to the same transaction, and sentenced him to two years' rigorous imprisonment.

The prosecution case was that in March, 1911, a fire occurred in a courtyard of a "dhed," who was blind. He complained to the accused that the fire was caused by two other "dheds." The accused sent for these and began to threaten and abuse them. It was said that he even went to the length of giving them kicks and blows, and almost the whole night passed in this manner. After a good deal of haggling, at the suggestion of the accused, the "dheds" paid him Rs. 26 and the accused advised the complainant to drop his complaint. The complainant then wrote out a statement at the dictation of the accused, that the fire was the result of an accidental spark from his fireplace. The accused then destroyed the first complaint.

On the evidence, the Sessions Judge convicted the accused, and sentenced him as above-stated. Their Lordships dismissed the appeal.

CONVICTION REVERSED.

Their lordships also disposed of an appeal from a decision of Mr. A. H. S. Aston, Chief Presidency Magistrate, who convicted Amarsey Kanji, a rice-merchant, of criminal misappropriation and cheating, and sentenced him to a day's simple imprisonment, and a fine of Rs. 300.

Mr. S. G. Velinkar appeared for the accused and the Government Pleader for the Crown.

The prosecution case was that the complainant Bhaidas, who was a cousin of the accused sent four khandis of rice from Bhiwandi to to Bombay to his agent, Mangaldass. The accused, it was alleged, then went to Mangaldass and represented to him that the bags had been consigned to him and on the strength of that representation obtained delivery of the goods. He, however, kept the goods in the warehouse of the agent, Mangaldass. The value of the goods was credited to his account, and they were removed by Mangaldass. The complainant subsequently came to Bombay and after making inquiries filed this prosecution.

On the evidence before him, Mr. Aston convicted the accused, and sentenced him as above stated. He further ordered that out of the fine, Rs. 150 should be paid to the complainant as compensation.

After hearing the arguments, their Lordships said that the evidence did not make out a criminal offence, and set aside the conviction and sentence. The fine was ordered to be refunded.

SANCTION TO PROSECUTE A PLEADER.

Their Lordships heard the petition of Karwirappa A. Kulkarni, a pleader practising at Dharwar, against the order of Mr. E. H. Leggat, Sessions Judge, granting sanction to prosecute him for perjury.

Mr. L. J. Robertson appeared for the pleader and the Acting Advocate-General for the Crown.

The facts of the present application were that in a criminal trial it was deposed by the Dharwar Deputy Superintendent of Police that the present applicant, who appeared for the defence in that case, was at Naikunr on the 20th July last. The pleader went into the witness box and deposed that he was not present at Naiknur on that date. Subsequently the Government pleader of Dharwar applied for sanction to prosecute the pleader for perjury, in that he made the statement that he had not been to Naiknur on the 20th July, deliberately knowing it to be false. Notice was given to the accused and affidavits and counter-affidavits were made. The Sessions Judge on those affidavits thought there was a prima-facie case, and that he ought to leave the question of assessing the value of the evidence to the criminal court, who would try the case. Accordingly he granted sanction.

After hearing arguments, their Lordships, in delivering judgment, said they could not shut their eyes to the fact that there was a body of evidence, which the Government pleader at Dharwar was prepared to bring forward for the purpose of proving that the petitioner had committed perjury, and that his statement was false. It did seem that an inquiry was necessary in the interests of public justice and that the Sessions Judge was right in exercising his discretion in the manner he had done. On these grounds the appeal must be dismissed.

Mr. Robertson then asked the Court to direct the trying magistrate to commit the case to the Sessions if he was satisfied that a prima facie case has been made out.

Their Lordships said that it was unnecessary to make any such order, because they felt sure that the magistrate in question would take it into consideration having regard to the status of the petitioner and the importance of the case.

The appeal was accordingly dismissed and the sanction was confirmed.

A MORTGAGE CLAIM.

On the Original Side of the Bombay High Court yesterday, Mr. Justice Beaman disposed of the suit of Messrs. Rawal and Company against Mr. R. D. Sethna, liquidator of a limited company, in respect of their mortgage claim.

The facts of this case have been reported.

After the evidence had been recorded, the parties came to terms, whereby the plaintiffs are to receive Rs. 1,250 in full satisfaction of their claim. The plaintiffs are to see that one Lalubhai Gambhirdass does not enforce his claim against the company, and the liquidator has agreed not to take any steps against the plaintiffs or Lalubhai. The parties are to bear their own costs.

A NAWAB'S CLAIM.

At the Bombay High Court, yesterday, Mr. Justice Dinshaw Davar heard the suit of Nawab Behram Jang, Bahadur, a Nawab of His Highness the Nizam's territories, against Haji Sultan Ali Shustri, to recover Rs. 6,600 and odd.

The plaintiff's case was that by a consent decree of that Court, the defendant was ordered to pay the above amount as costs of a suit. Nothing had been paid and hence the suit.

The defence was that the plaintiff had not carried out his part of the consent decree, and hence defendant was not bound to pay the costs. He submitted that the suit should be dismissed with costs.

Evidence is being recorded in this case.

BOMBAY BOARDING HOUSE.

Curious Case in the Small Cause Court.

Before Mr. Billimoria, at the Court of Small Causes, Mrs. Rose Isaacson sued Mr. George Norman Mann, of Wodehouse Road, to recover Rs. 69-9-4, on account of wages due to her from the 1st June to 15th June, her railway fare from Gwalior to Bombay, and her hotel charges from the 16th of June to the date of the suit.

Mrs. Isaacson stated that she was a professional housekeeper. While she was at Gwalior she received a letter from Mrs. Renard of Bombay, whom she had known previously, that Mr. Mann (defendant), was in need of a housekeeper. The terms offered were Rs. 30 a month, with board and lodging, and enquired whether she would like to accept the place

The Judge: Did she mention any thing about the railway charges?—The question of railway charges was settled between me and Mr. Mann.

Mr. Mann: I deny it.

Mrs. Isaacson: I came to Bombay and went to Mrs. Renard; she sent me to Mr. Mann, who engaged me on the 9th of April, the day on which I arrived in Bombay. After I had joined him, I asked for my railway fare and Mr. Mann said he would make it good.

Mr. Mann, interrupting, said he denied that statement.

Did you tell him the amount spent by you on railway charges?—Yes, I said that it was Rs. 30 and he did say that he would make it good. On the 5th of May when he paid my salary for April I again asked him for the railway expenses, and he again said he would make it good. He could not afford to pay it then and asked me to wait till June. My second month's salary, for May, was paid on the 5th of June. On this occasion I did not remind him of the railway charges because I had already given him notice that I was going to leave him on the 15th of June.

What happened on the 28th May, any row?—Finding that I had not full control of the housekeeping I gave Mr. Mann a month's notice on the 15th of May.

Written notice?—No, I spoke to him and asked him if he wanted a written notice, and he said "No."

Anything more?—Yes; he said he was sorry that I was leaving him—the old hypocrite.

Was there any disagreement?—Mr. Mann called me a "mischief maker." He said that his lady boarders had told him that I had called him "a beast" and "a brute."

Up to what date did you serve him?—Up to the 28th of May. I stopped working entirely from the 1st of June. I wanted to work up to the 15th, the date on which my notice was to expire, but Mr. Mann made himself very unpleasant and refused to allow me to work. I then asked him to pay me up to the 15th of June and also pay my railway charges from Gwalior and told him that I would leave the house. He said he could not let me work as he had already engaged a Mr. Nelson, and that I could stay on till the 15th of June.

You were willing to go before the 15th?—Yes, if he paid me up. I stayed on, and on the 16th he did not pay me up, but stopped my food and threatened to send for the police to expel me from his house. On the 16th I had no place to go to and so I went to the Apollo Hotel. I paid there Rs. 5 a day.

Don't you think that was extravagance for a woman in your station in life?—I had no other home to go to.

The plaintiff was then cross-examined by Mr. Mann.

Have you got the hotel bill? I made enquiries and was told that you did not live there.—Indeed, I have got the bill.

Now tax your memory; did you not tell my cook that you would have nothing to do with the orders, etc?—Yes, you did not want me to work and had already engaged Mr. Nelson.

Mr. Mann: That was because you called me a "dirty, filthy wretch."

Mrs. Isaacson: Now Mr. Mann, be truthful. I only called you "a beast" and "a brute."

The Judge: Please do not wash your dirty linen in the Court.

Mr. Mann (to the plaintiff): Have you got any letters or documents to show that you were promised your railway fare?—You several times promised to make it good.

Mr. Mann: I deny it.

The examination of the defendant was then proceeded with. He said:—My name is George Normanjee Mann. I am a Government pensioner and keep a boarding establishment at Wodehouse Road.

The Judge: We know all that: you have repeated that several times before in this court. Did you ask Mrs. Renard to get you a housekeeper?—Yes, I asked her to help me in getting a good housekeeper, and she said she knew Mrs. Isaacson, who was leaving her appointment by the end of March, and might take up the appointment. She said Mrs. Isaacson was employed in the native state of Gwalior.

I told Mrs. Renard, continued the defendant, that if Mrs. Isaacson came to Bombay and applied for the post, and if I approved her, I would give her the post. Mrs. Renard then wrote to Mrs. Isaacson, who came down to Bombay on the 9th of April. She was engaged on that date, on a salary of Rs. 30 with board and lodging. The room I gave her is usually occupied by a boarder who pays Rs. 100 a month. I would therefore put down that Mrs. Isaacson cost me about Rs. 120 a month.

The Judge: Did she tell you anything about the railway fare?—Not a word.

Not even when you had the dispute with her?—I deny that she ever asked me. I am a God-fearing man and am on my oath.

What did you tell her when she gave you notice?—I said I would prefer her leaving me at once, and that in lieu of her working during the period of her notice, I told her that I did not want her to work, and that I would arrange to keep her at the Y. W. C. A. and pay for her board and lodging at that place, which would amount at the most to Rs. 45 a month. This offer she refused to accept.

Why did you not pay her and let her go?—I was not bound to pay her. Her conduct was most objectionable and she had given notice.

Why was her conduct objectionable?—She was creating mischief. Ladies and gentlemen complained about her. She used to ask the ladies to fasten her buttons, unhook her dresses, and then she went to Mrs. Gay's room, and Mrs. Gay asked her to leave the room. She evidently went to Mrs. Gay's room to complain about me. Then although a housekeeper she attempted to associate with the boarders on equal terms which was resented by them. On the 16th, as she did not leave the house, I threatened to call the police and stopped her food.

Mrs. Isaacson: Oh Mr. Mann! Be truthful. All that Mr. Mann has said is untrue.

His Honour, in disposing of the case, remarked he had heard both sides, and as to the credibility of either party it was six of one, and half a dozen of the other. Neither party had produced witnesses. He gave a decree for Rs. 15 in favour of Mrs. Isaacson and disallowed the other claims.

THE POLICE COURTS.

A Question Regarding Police Bail.

YESTERDAY, at the Esplanade Police Court, Rao Bahadur Chunilal H. Setalvad, Third Presidency Magistrate, disposed of the case in which Jivandas Gopaldas, a cloth merchant in the Morarji Gocouldas Cloth Market, was charged with the theft of a box of umbrella cloth, valued at Rs. 300, the property of another cloth merchant named Narayendas Goverdhandas.

Inspector Barnes said that a complaint was made to the police that a box of cloth was missing. On Wednesday afternoon he received information that the box was stored in the godown of the accused. He made inquiries and came to the conclusion that there was not sufficient evidence to justify a prosecution. However, when he reported the matter to Superintendent Priestley, the latter ordered the arrest of the accused and this was effected at midnight.

Counsel for the accused remarked that the Superintendent declined to release the accused on bail and kept him in the lock-up.

After evidence had been recorded it was stated on behalf of the defence that the coolies employed by the accused to empty carts and put bales and boxes of cloth in the godown, had by mistake put the complainant's box into the godown, from a shed where a large number of packages were lying.

The magistrate, in disposing of the case, remarked that Inspector Barnes had acted very fairly and in straight-forward manner. He had judged the circumstances rightly. He had reported the results of his investigations to his Superintendent, at the same time suggesting that the matter could be disposed of under the Police Act, as the evidence did not justify a prosecution. Superintendent Priestley, for reasons which he did not come into Court to state, ordered the arrest of the accused at 1 o'clock in the morning, and did not even release him on bail, but made this respectable and honest merchant suffer the indignity of imprisonment in the lock-up.

His Worship said he would deal with the case only in view of the evidence and the facts disclosed. The evidence clearly showed that it was usual in the cloth market for coolies and servants to be sent to empty carts and store bales and boxes in the godowns of the merchants. Before being taken to the godowns the bales and boxes belonging to different merchants were kept in a shed. In the present case it had been satisfactorily proved that the accused was not present at the time, when the box was removed, and that he had never passed orders for its removal into his godown and he would be acquitted. He was a respectable and honest merchant, well-known in the market. His Worship could not understand why Mr. Priestley did not attend the Court to conduct the prosecution, but deputed Mr. Barnes, the investigating officer, who suggested that the prosecution should not be undertaken. The accused left the court without any stigma resting upon him.

DISPUTE ABOUT HORSES.

Charles Stephens (38), European, horse dealer and Veterinary Surgeon, was yesterday charged with alleged wrongful restraint before Mr. P. H. Dastur, at Mazagaon, on complaint by Shaik Cassam Abdul Kadar. The complainant stated that he placed four race-horses in the accused's stable in November last. He had to pay Rs. 10 a month per horse to the accused, to whom he owed Rs. 490 in all. On the 5th instant he put in his papers in the Insolvency Court; he obtained an order. After that he went to Mr. Stephen's stable to take his horses. Mr. Stephen refused to allow him to take the horses without paying the money. There was an attachment on those horses and that attachment was raised because the complainant became an insolvent. The defendant said he had received advice from his pleader not to hand over the horses to any one and that he wrote a letter to the Official Assignee asking what should be done with them, but no reply had been received.

His Worship, in his judgment held that the circumstances did not prove any offence. It was the accused's stable and he could admit people into it or refuse to let them enter as he liked. No wrongful restraint can be charged to him therefore. The matter as to the possession of the horses must be decided in a civil court.

THEFT OF COTTON.

Luxuman Mahadoo (55), a Hindu cart-driver, was yesterday sentenced to two years' rigorous imprisonment by Mr. P. H. Dastur, for criminal breach of trust in respect of six bales of cotton valued at Rs. 1,500, entrusted to him by Mr. Dhunjisha Dadabhai of the Jam Mill.

The facts of the case have already been reported.

Five witnesses were examined for the prosecution, which was conducted by Superintendent Patterson, with Inspector G. W. Horne.

The accused admitted one previous conviction.

STABBING CASE.

The case in which Lalloo Mahomed Husain (21) and Noor Mahomed Abdulla (27), two Mohamedans, who were charged with causing grievous hurt to one Mahomed Safee Suban, under circumstances already reported, was postponed to the 4th of July as the injured man is still in hospital.

THEFT OF A GOAT.

Abdulla Vazir, a Mahomedan boy of 15 years, was ordered to be given six stripes for stealing a goat valued at Rs. 5. The goat was kept in the passage of the chawl in which the owner lived.

COCAINE PROSECUTION.

Inspector Jones produced Alam Ismail (20) before Mr. P. H. Dastur and charged him with unlawful possession of four grains of cocaine. The accused admitted the offence and was fined Rs. 5, or in default one week's simple imprisonment.

A GENEROUS GIRL.

Secellia Sarrao, a girl abont 15, the step-daughter of the complainant, Atta Bai Sarrao, was produced before Mr. P. H. Dastur, at Mazagon charged with the theft of Rs. 600, in sovereigns, currency notes and cash during the last six months. The complainant stated some eleven months ago he left Rs. 600 in a purse. For the last three months he did not see it. About eight days ago he found the money was missing. On enquiries and after threats the accused admitted having taken the money and said she had given it to various people. A sum of Rs. 45-8-0 was recovered. He reported the matter to the police as some of those to whom the accused stated some money was given denied it. Mr. Dastur convicted the accused and considering her age and relationship with the complainant ordered that she be bound over to be of good behaviour for a period six months in a sum of Rs. 50 for herself, and with one surety in a like amount.

MOTOR PROSECUTION.

Shaik Abdul Razak was charged with driving motor car No. 833 without having a number on the back of the car, contrary to the rules of the Motor Act II of 1904, Sergeant Thompson prosecuted and the accused pleaded "guilty." Mr. Oliveira yesterday fined the accused Rs. 3.

POLICEMAN CONVICTED.

Sk. Kader Sk. Abdulla, P. C. No. 1751 B pleaded "guilty" to a charge of having negligently permitted an accused to escape from his custody, before Mr. F. Oliveira yesterday. The Magistrate convicted and fined the accused Rs. 5. Inspector W. R. Jones of "B" Division prosecuted.

MARINE COURT.

The Accident to the "City of Paris."

Under the presidency of the Acting Chief Presidency Magistrate, Mr. Kenneth Kemp, a Marine Court of inquiry was held at the Esplanade Police Court yesterday, the members appointed by Government being Mr. D. F. MacDonald, Deputy Marine Superintendent, B. I. S. N. Company, and Mr. J.B. Dickinson, Chief Engineer of the steamer "Aros Castle." The inquiry was in connection with the Ellerman Line steamer, "City of Paris" which collided with the Victoria Dock wall on June 8th.

Mr. Bowen, Acting Government Solicitor, appeared for Government and led the evidence.

Captain John Campbell, Master of the "City of Paris," was examined as the first witness. He said that there were two engine-room telegraphs on the bridge. A tell-tale apparatus was on the lower part of each telegraph dial and was connected with the engine in such a way that it showed the position of the gear. It showed whether the engines went ahead, or astern, or stopped. There was also a pointer on each dial, by which the orders were repeated from the engine-room. Witness left Liverpool on May 17th with a crew of 185, 17 passengers, and a general cargo of 8,173 tons. Besides himself there were four officers, the chief and other engineers. Witness arrived in Bombay harbour on June 8th and anchored opposite the Victoria Dock entrance at four o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Warner, Assistant Dockmaster, came on board to berth the ship. The officers were at their respective stations. The witness was on the bridge, so were the chief and the third officers. Both anchors were ready to be dropped. At 4-15 the ship got clear of the dock entrance. Up to the time the ship was brought ahead of No. 10 berth the orders given to the engine-room were "go ahead." After they had got into that position the first order given was "half speed astern." It was given by Mr. Warner, the Assistant Dockmaster. Witness himself saw the third officer telegraph that order. He did not take particular notice as to how the bow of the ship bore to the dock-wall, when that order was given. The order was acknowledged from the engine-room. Witness' attention was then called to the tell-tale, by hearing the third officer and the Assistant Dockmaster singing out almost simultaneously that the pointer on the tell-tale was "ahead." Witness at once telegraphed "Stop." The order was acknowledged from the engine-room, both by the hand and the tell-tale. After the order "half speed astern" was given by him the ship was going at an increased speed ahead. After giving the order "Stop," witness gave the order full-speed astern. The tell-tale moved backwards and forwards. The engine was stopped, and then went ahead. Witness had called the attention of the third officer and Mr. Warner to this. After the order stop was given the engines stopped. At this time the witness told the third officer to go into the engine-room and tell the engineer that the engines were going wrong. The chief officer, at this time, sang out from the forecastle-head that they would have to go astern. The assistant dockmaster suggested that the starboard anchor should be dropped. This was not done and the witness suggested to Mr. Warner that the engines should be tried again. Witness then telegraphed "full speed astern." The tell-tale showed "full speed astern," and witness then rang up "stop" again. At that time they were very close to the dock wall, about forty or fifty feet from it. At this time Mr. Warner himself went to the telegraph and rang up "full speed astern." This order was given immediately before the ship struck. She did not rebound because a few seconds before she struck the engines moved astern.

In reply to question by the President the witness said that this was the first time that the engines had gone astern.

To Mr. Bowen, the witness said that the collision could not have been avoided if one of the anchors was dropped, because they were too close to the wall. Two or three minutes elapsed between the first order to go astern and the collision.

The evidence of witnesses who were on the bridge at the time of the collision was recorded.

Mr. Irvine, second engineer, and other engineers then went into the witness box and gave evidence to the effect that they had correctly carried out all orders given from the bridge.

Mr. Bowen addressed the Court and contended that the second engineer, who was in charge of the engines at the time, had failed to carry out the orders from the bridge.

The enquiry was adjourned until to-morrow morning.

GREEN ROOM GOSSIP.

LAST week, in the course of Sir Herbert Tree's Shakespeare Festival, wrote Herbert Farjeon, in a contemporary in mail weeks, Miss Phyllis Neilson-Terry gave us Viola and Portia. Her Portia is—Portia*; a great lady, of the noblest condition, finely bred, highly cultivated, distinguished in every action, the best educated of all Shakespeare's heroines. She knows her own worth, too: but there is never a hint of affectation in her and she brims with the wonder of womanhood. With the intuition of genius—and there is as much intuition as thought in all her performances—Miss Neilson-Terry realises the difference between Portia's sparkle and that of Rosalind. Portia loved to indulge her wit in elegant exercises; Rosalind loved to give hers rapturous free holidays. "I pray thee overname them; and as thou namest them, I will describe them" says Portia of her suitors to Nerissa; and she is quite confident that she will succeed in being brilliant. It is this confidence that carries her so triumphantly through the Trial scene—a scene in which Miss Neilson-Terry acts with a ranging authority that would astonish you were you not too overwhelmed to be astonished. The Mercy speech, beginning on a note of sublime indignation and developing into what seems almost a spiritual confession, can rarely have been delivered with greater beauty; while even more memorable is her scene with Bassanio after the choosing of the casket. It is so intimate, so personal, so sacred that we felt almost ashamed to be in the act of listening. The words were for Bassanio's ears, and for his alone.

I could write—still reluctantly—at greater length of this Portia, of the finely differentiated shades of attitude toward each character she addresses, of the queenly manner in which she lets her hand be kissed—that royal extension—of her courtesy and her gaiety and her resource. But there must be added a few words on Viola—the most moving of all Miss Neilson-Terry's impersonations. There is in it a sweet gravity, a deep, still quality that marks it peculiarly Shakespare's Viola. To the making of this heroine Miss Neilson-Terry brings twilight and welling tears and emotions yearning on the verge of expression. She has been called to account for "missing" the humour of the part; but we think, as we hope, that this omission is intentional. Certainly Shakespears' Portia "made points." But not so Shakespeare's Viola, and Miss Neilson-Terry is to be congratulated on escaping so many of the traditional pitfalls. Actors of Sakespeare are too much given to considering what their character could do instead of what it would do. This failing has not appeared in Miss Neilson-Terry. She understands that while Rosalind's male attire made her a little more a man and Portia's male attire made her almost quite a man, Viola's made her only the more a woman. Of the scene with Orsino, in which she speaks the immortal lines beginning. "A blank, my lord, she never told her love," it is impossible for anyone but a genius to write without laying bare his own incompetence. We therefore frankly refuse to speak of it. One criticism must be offered. Viola should not be allowed to sing "Come away, come away, death." True to take this from Miss Neilson-Terry would be to deprive her audience of some of the most exquisite moments of the evening; but as the singing of the Cuckoo Song in "As you like. It" must once and for all give away Rosalind's identity to Orlando beyond the shadow of the possibility of pretence, so must this have revealed Viola's sex to Orsino. Moreover, it provides the thoughtless members of Miss Neilson-Terry's audience with an eagerly-exercised excuse for momentarily dispelling a heavenly illusion as, in their vociferous demands for an encore, they intrude their own personality on the scene.

I attended recently the rehearsal of a play from which it had been decided that some of the "comic business" must be excised. It had formerly been arranged that, at a certain exit, two of the characters should bump into each other; and when, at the rehearsal in question, the actors were about to perform this ingenuous piece of business, the stage manager stopped them with the words, "That's cut." I shall not easily forget the look of incredulous dismay that overspread the features of one of the disappointed actors as he turned to the producer and protestingly exclaimed, "Cut the bump? "cut the bump?" Well, that does seem a pity—to cut the bump!" This gentleman should really have secured a part in "Looking for Trouble," a farcical comedy in three acts by Helene Gringold and Lawrence Cowen, now being played at the Aldwych Theatre, for metaphorically speaking it is one glorified bump from start to finish. Bump-lowers are bound to love it. One character, for instance, raps his fingers on a table to emphasise his point, and severely hurts his knuckles. Another treats us at regular intervals to a comic cough. A third helps out the humour with a preposterous walk. The fastness and furiousness of the action so hotly rivals that displayed in cinematograph shows that the thought of "Looking for Trouble" on a moving film positively makes the brain reel. I cannot relate the plot, because I have only the haziest idea what it was all about; but I can give you some samples of the dialogue, which is of this order."

* "A hair on the head's worth two in the soup"
"I, Mrs. Bellingham at home!" "I'll go and ask her." "I'm not such a fool as I look." "I'm sure you're not.

The authors do not even spare us from "Wait and see!" The conversation all round intimately resembles that employed in the odd spaces of penny weeklies by such verbal knockabouts as Guggs and Maggs, Snobbins and Bobbins, and Co. (I wonder whether it is psychologically accurate that as soon as you meet someone whose name rhymes with yours own you instinctively strain after smartness in repartee!) Of course, the actors at the Aldwych are fighting uphill. Miss Eva Moore does nothing in particular with considerable accomplishment. Mr. Neil Kenyon does everything under the sun, and some things under furniture, with an unflagging vim equalled only by the enthusiasm of a ductile audience.

Next week. "M. H. W." wrote in the "Pall Mall Gazette" on May 23, the Abbey Theatre company will be with us again, at the Court, with "The Playboy of the Western World" and "Kathleen ni Houlihan," and Miss Horniman's company are meanwhile playing at the Coronet, showing an art of acting as sincere, modest, and accomplished as that for which the Irish Players, under the guidance of Mr. Yeats and Lady Gregory, have now become as famous in America as they have long been here and in Dublin. The intellectual and artistic provision for the entertainment of London playgoers is the richer for the Manchester visit and will be augmented by the Irish. And with such entertainment as those now running at the Kingsway, the Royalty, the Haymarket, the Duke of York's, the Criterion, the Vaudeville, and several other theatres that could be mentioned, the nonsense of those who talk about the degeneracy of the British Stage becomes rather agreeably manifest. It would be much nearer the truth to say that we are in the midst of such a renaissance of good plays and useful acting as has not been seen in London for many years. And for the vitality of that movement, the work and influence of such men and women as Miss Horniman, Mr. Herbert Trench, Mr. Granville Barker, Mr. Yeats, Lady Gregory, and the brilliant little group of dramatists whose names are too familiar to need repetition, are largely responsible. "In the theatre," once wrote Wagner, "lies the spiritual seed and kernel of all national poetic and national moral culture. No other branch of Art can ever truly flourish or ever aid in cultivating the people, until the Theatre's all-powerful assistance has been completely recognised and guaranteed." England and Ireland have still a long way to travel before they will see the accomplishment of that ideal, but—we are on the right road.

It is hard to believe that only a little more than five years have passed since Synge's remarkable work, which is to be the chief piece in the Court programme next week, was first acted at the Abbey Theatre, in the January of 1907, and received with an outburst of disorder that, set all Dublin talking. The demonstration of rage was renewed when, in the June of the same year, it was decided to bring the play to London; and both Mr. Yeats and Lady Gregory had to appeal in special articles, to the better judgment of many of their supporters whose opposed opinions on the matter they could still respect. In one of these articles Mr. Yeats very truly said:—

Many are beginning to recognise the right of the individual mind to see the world in its own way, to cherish the thoughts which separate man from one another and that are the creators of distinguished life, instead of those thoughts that had made one man like another, if they could, and have but succeeded in setting hysteria and insincerity in place of confidence and self-possession.

A thousand times this number of Physicians endorse

SANATOGEN

The Royal Tonic-Food.

Over twelve thousand practising physicians have recorded in writing their high opinion of Sanatogen, and many thousands more are daily prescribing it with the most beneficial results in cases of nervous debility, brain fag, lack of vitality, sleeplessness, disordered digestion poverty of blood, and various wasting diseases.

Can you ask for more convincing testimony of Sanatogen's value than the fact that it is thus publicly endorsed and recommended by practically the whole medical profession?

When you are constantly weary in mind and body; when your brain is overworked; when your nerves are jaded—that is when you need Sanatogen to rebuild and revitalise you.

Among the original letters in praise of Sanatogen which are filed for public inspection, there are many from world-famous physicians, whose names stand for the highest scientific achievements. Their advice, and the example of distinguished men like those mentioned here, it is safe for you to follow.

"A Great Invigorator of Life."

Never are Sanatogen's effects more wonderfully shown than in cases of convalescence after Malaria, Dysentery, Enteric Fever and other exhausting tropical diseases. A striking case in point is that of Mr. Thomas Lynn, c/o Presidency Postmaster, G.P.O., Calcutta, who writes:
"I had been a martyr to Malaria for four years, becoming weaker and weaker, with the naturally run-down condition and brain-fag, nervousness and Dyspepsia. Everybody advised me to go to the hills for some months, but this was impossible. Sanatogen was strongly recommended by a friend, and I am delighted to say that only two bottles have made an extraordinary difference for the better—nay, for the best. I shall always highly recommend Sanatogen everywhere I go."

Sanatogen will Give You New Life.

If you are a sufferer from poor nerves, low vitality or a weak digestion, it is simply a duty you owe to yourself and your family to begin the use of Sanatogen. Buy the first bottle to-day; you can get it at any chemist or bazaar. It is a fine, white powder which can be pleasantly taken in any non-acid beverage. And you may take it with the absolute assurance that it will give you a new lease of health, new strength and vitality, stronger nerves, and better digestion.

The Hon. Mr. Justice [illegible]tson, Judge of the Supreme Court, Lahore, Punjab, writes:—"My experience with Sanatogen has been very favourable. I took it some months during the trying season of the year and found it a great strengthener."

Sir Charles A. Cameron, C.B., Etc., writes:—"Sanatogen is a substance of the highest nutritive value, contains it does a large amount of organic phosphorus, in exactly the form in which it can be easily absorbed. It is an excellent nerve food."

Mr. Shirley Tremearne, Editor of "Capital," 3, Clive Street, Calcutta, writes:—"I cannot speak highly of Sanatogen, it only kept me up during sharp attack of fever, it afterwards restored me more to full vigour. In I was better and stronger after this course of Sanatogen than before the attack."

"The Medical Times" says:—"There is no doubt whatever that the nutrition of patients taking Sanatogen improves wonderfully, and in all probability, to its being easy of assimilation and the organic absorbable phosphorus which it contains."

Sir Gilbert Parker, M.P., the popular Novelist, writes:—"20, Carlton House Terrace, S.W.—I have used Sanatogen with extraordinary benefit. It is to my mind a true food tonic, feeding the nerves, increasing the energy, and giving fresh vigour to the over-worked body and mind."

Prof. Dr. C. A. Ewald, of Berlin University, writes:—"I have used Sanatogen in a number of cases, mainly in a nervous or neurasthenic origin, and have obtained excellent results."

A Natural Beauty Secret

ICILMA FLUOR CREAM, England's premier face-cream, has restored clearness and beauty to more complexions than anything else known. DR. DE ROOS' MEDICINES HAVE AN UNRIVALLED REPUTATION OF OVER FIFTY YEARS.

DR. DE ROOS'

WORLD-FAMED

GUTTÆ VITÆ

Or, LIFE DROPS.

The Great European Remedy for Nervous and Functional Exhaustion.

This extraordinary rejuvenating essence strengthens the vitality of the whole system, gives energy to the muscles, and speedily restores the impaired powers of life, imparting strength and vigour to the most debilitated and worn out constitution. Those who suffer from premature decay, or deficiency of the vital forces, owing to dissipation, worry, overwork, excesses, or any other cause, will find this medicine just what they require. Equally adapted for the studious and sedentary; the aged and infirm: the nervous and debilitated; as also for delicate females and weakly children. All sufferers from loss of appetite, nervous headache, lassitude, and despondency—too often accompanied with suicidal thoughts—should make immediate and fair unprejudiced trial of this wonderful medicine, which is daily effecting the most remarkable cures in patients who had been given up by the Faculty as incurable, and left to drag out the remainder of their existence a misery to themselves, and a continual anxiety to their friends. In all cases of nervous and functional debility, epilepsy, impurity and poorness of the blood, aversion to and incapacity for society, study, or business, giddiness, disturbed sleep, harassing dreams, loss of memory, and other symptoms, the result of self-acquired ailments that embitter and shorten life, it is truly unrivalled. To married persons especially, this preparation will prove invaluable, giving strength and vigour in place of lassitude and incompetency. Price 11s., or four times that quantity, 33s. per Bottle.

DR. DE ROOS' COMPOUND RENAL PILLS, for Pains in the Back, Gravel, Lumbago, Gout, Rheumatism, Diabetes, and all Kidney Affections; weakness across the loins, Sandy or other Deposits, Discharges and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally. Price 2s. 9d.

LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL

THE PUREST. THE MOST PALATABLE. THE MOST DIGESTIBLE. THE MOST EFFICACIOUS.

Incontestably proved by Forty Years' Medical Experience to be The only Cod Liver Oil which produces the full curative effects in

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST, THROAT AFFECTIONS, GENERAL DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE SKIN, WASTING DISEASES OF CHILDREN, RICKETS, AND ALL SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR G. DUNCAN GIBB, Bart., M.D., Physician to the Westminster Hospital.

"The value of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL as a therapeutic agent in a number of diseases, chiefly of an exhaustive character, has been admitted by the world of medicine; but, in addition, I have found it a remedy of great power in the treatment of many affections of the Throat and Larynx, especially in Consumption of the latter, where it will sustain life when everything else fails."

DR. SINCLAIR COGHILL, Physician to the Royal National Hospital for Consumption, Ventnor.

"I have convinced myself that in Tubercular and the various forms of Strumous Disease, Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL possess greater therapeutic efficacy than any other Cod Liver Oil with which I am acquainted. It was especially noted in a large number of cases in which the patients protested they had never been able to retain or digest other Cod Liver Oil, that DR. DE JONGH'S OIL was not only tolerated, but taken readily, and with marked benefit."

JOSEPH J. POPE Esq., M.R.C.S., Late Staff Surgeon, Army, Professor of Hygiene, Birkbeck Institution, London.

"I found during my Indian experience that the worth and character of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL remained unchanged by tropical heat or foreign climate, and it was, from its uniformity of character, particularly adapted for long-continued administration. The value of 'hydro-carbone' in all debilitated states of the system is now becoming thoroughly recognised; and it is, without doubt, from the animal oils, and fats, rather than from their vegetable substitutes, that we may hope to derive the purest benefit. The Oil of DR. DE JONGH places in everyone's reach a reliable and valuable remedy, one that cannot be too widely recognised."

DR. R. C. CROFT, Author of "Handbook for the Nursery."

"DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is almost a specific in many of the Diseases peculiar to Infancy and Childhood, and I have seen marked benefit produced by its use. Patients prefer it to the Pale Oils; and are able to retain it more comfortably."

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is Supplied ONLY in IMPERIAL Half-Pints, Pints and Quarts, sealed with DE JONGH'S Patent Capsule impressed on the top with DR. DE JONGH'S Stamp, and on the side with his Signature, and the Signature of ANSAR, HARFORD & Co.; and bearing under the wrapper a Label with the same Stamp and Signatures, WITHOUT THESE MARKS NONE CAN POSSIBLY BE GENUINE.

Sold by all respectable Chemists, Druggists, and Storekeepers throughout the World.

A SAFE REMEDY FOR ALL SKIN AND BLOOD DISEASES.

If you suffer from any disease due to the impure taste of the Blood, FROM WHATEVER CAUSE ARISING, or should test the value of Clarke's Blood Mixture, the world-famed Blood Purifier and Restorer. This medicine has 4 years' reputation, and is to-day more popular than ever the reason of this being undoubtedly because this wonderful remedy does what it professes to do—IT CURES SKIN AND BLOOD DISEASES PERMANENTLY.

CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE

IS THE FINEST BLOOD PURIFIER EVER DISCOVERED.

It is warranted to cleanse the blood from all impurities from whatever cause arising for it is a safe and Permanent Remedy.

SCROFULA, SCURVY, ECZEMA, BLOOD POISON, ULCERS, SKIN & BLOOD DISEASES,	BAD LEGS, BLOTCHES, SPOTS, BLACKHEADS, PIMPLES, AND SORES OF ALL KINDS

It is the only real specific for Gout and Rheumatic Pains, for it removes the cause from the Blood and Bones.

NOTE This mixture is pleasant to the taste and warranted free from anything injurious to the most delicate constitution of either sex, from infancy to old age, and the Proprietors solicit sufferers to give it a trial to test its value. Thousands of wonderful cures have been effected by it.

TRIED MANY THINGS WITHOUT BENEFIT UNTIL TOOK CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE.

Mr. F. E. Lewis, 48, Bridge Street Row, Chester writes:—"Just a line in favour of 'Clarke's Blood Mixture.' I had eczema for seven months, and tried many things without benefit until I took your remedy. After the eight bottle I was quite well again. Please accept this letter as a token of gratitude to your wonderful Clarke's Blood Mixture.—June 13, 1903.

IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD.—"We have seen hosts of letters from all sorts and conditions of people, in which the writers acknowledge the benefit they have received from Clarke's Blood Mixture, which as a curative agent cannot be too highly estimated, since it cleanses and clears the blood from all impurities, and restores it to its normal condition." This is a good testimonial from the Family Doctor the popular medical weekly, which goes on further to say; "It is certainly the finest blood purifier that science and skill have brought to light and we can, with the utmost confidence, recommend it our subscribers and the public generally."

Sold by all Chemists and Patent Medicine Vendors throughout the World.

VETARZO BRAIN AND NERVE FOOD

This remarkable compound, the latest discovery of modern times for all phases of brain and nerve wreckage and exhaustion, sleeplessness, trembings, palpitation, nervous dyspepsia, low spirits, mental and bodily prostration, muscular and local weakness, general and nervous debility, faulty nutrition, premature decay or deficiency of the vital forces, impaired vitality, harassing dreams, night disturbances, sudden startings, dimness of sight, defective hearing, loss of memory, inability to perform the various duties of life, or to enjoy its pleasures, restlessness that can settle to nothing, irritability of temper, female complaints, hysteria, painful periods, backache, bearing down sensations, nervous headache, wasting disease, night sweats, &c., whether induced by worry, overwork, unhealthy climate, dissipation, excesses, or other influences incidental to the wear and tear and haste or over-strain of modern life. Bracing up the system generally, it gives tone to the exhausted nerves, arrests all weakening wasting discharges, restores the failing energies, and imparts new life and vigour to those who had so recently seemed played out, "used up," and valueless.

VETARZO BLOOD MEDICINE

Never before was there anything like it, nor can its marvellous properties ever be equalled in all cases of poorness, impurity, or other imperfection of the blood from whatever cause arising. No sooner is it imbibed into the system than it permeates and penetrates to the minutest capillaries, overcoming and ejecting the virus of disease, wherever and in whatsoever form met with; removing all blotches, pimples, scurf, scurvy, scrofulous and glandular swellings, discolorations, roughness and unsightly patches, &c. Its effects are almost magical in the treatment of gout, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, pains and swellings of the joints, discharges, blood poison, secondary symptoms, eczema, lepra, psoriasis, bad legs, bad breasts, abscesses, ulcers, wounds, sores, goitre or Derbyshire neck, it improves the general health, and quickly removes long-standing bronchitis, asthma, and hacking, straining, spasmodic cough, too often the precursor of consumption.

CAUTION.—Ask for "VETARZO Brain and Nerve Food," or "VETARZO Blood Medicine," whichever is required, and see that you get them, as unprincipled vendors often try to palm off inferior preparations (usually their own manufacture), for the sake of extra profit. Price in England, 2/9. Every genuine bottle of these medicines bears the British Government Stamp with the words "VETARZO REMEDIES" impressed thereon, in white letters on a red ground. Registered Trade Mark, "VETARZO."

Sole Proprietors: THE VETARZO REMEDIES Co., GOSPEL OAK, LONDON, ENGLAND.

Legal proceedings will be taken against all persons infringing the Proprietors' rights.

COMMON SENSE IN A NUTSHELL.—A new medical work on certain vitally important matters with which every young man should be acquainted.
